

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations viii

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xv

A Note on Transliteration xvii

Abbreviations xviii

PART I: Realizing Metaphors, Situating Pushkin

Why Pushkin? 3

The Problem of Poetic Biography 34

Freud: The Curse of the Literally Figurative 45

Bloom: The Critic as Romantic Poet 67

Jakobson: Why the Statue Won't Come to Life, or Will It? 89

Lotman: The Code and Its Relation to Literary
Biography 118

PART II: Pushkin, Derzhavin, and the Life of the Poet

Why Derzhavin? 137

1814–1815 154

1825–1826 173

1830–1831 189

1836 199

Index 237

ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Alexander Pushkin 20
2. Natalia Nikolaevna Goncharova-Pushkina 21
3. Page with the rough draft of the poem “To a Grandee” 22
4. Page on which Pushkin began The Bronze Horseman 23
5. Pushkin’s self-caricature of 1835 or 1836 24
6. Pushkin’s illustration of a fantastic bird (cockerel?) inserted into the manuscript of The History of the Village Goriukhino 25
7. Gavriila Romanovich Derzhavin 142
8. Pushkin reciting his poem “Recollections at Tsarskoe Selo” at his graduation exercises at the Lyceum 143
9. Baron Anton Antonovich Delvig 144
10. Pavel Voinovich Nashchokin 144
11. A view of the Lyceum and Sadovaya Street 145
12. The Chesma column 146
13. The Cameron Gallery at Tsarskoe Selo 147