

Contents

1. Introduction	1
2. Self-structure and Social Structure	5
A Reexamination	5
The Emergence of Self	6
The Presentation of Self	7
3. Self-system: Delineation and Measurement	13
The Cybernetics of Self-control	13
The Sociological Perspective	14
The Psychological Perspective	19
An Operational Definition of Self-system	21
Twenty Statements Test	22
Operational Definitions of Social Takes	23
Psyche Takes and Social Takes	23
Long Takes and Short Takes	25
4. Self and Society Separated: The Tragic Version	27
The Tragic Version	27
Alienated Labor	27
The Moral Order	29
The Organization Man	30
Marcuse	31
Sociotechnics	33
The Generation of Self in Modern Society	34
5. Society Without Self: The Rational Version	39
The Rational Version	39
Short Takes and Self-systems	39

The Looking-glass Process	40
The Sociology of Knowledge	41
Language and Self	43
Role Models	44
Social Control and Self-structure	45
Advertising and Motivation in a Short Take Society	46
Differentiation and The Set of Social Identities	47
Processual Discontinuity and Self-structure	48
Rites of Passage	48
Solidarity	50
Disengagement Routines	51
The Dramaturgical Society	52
Summary	56
6. New Sources of Self	59
Computer Technology and Shrinking Middle Class Cadre	59
The Underground Church as a Source of Self	61
The Freak Community as Neo-Gemeinschaft	65
The Zodiac Identities	68
Encounter Groups and Sensitivity Groups	73
The Higher Learning	76
Mass Communication	83
Retirement Communities	86
7. Private Uses of Self	89
Corruption: Theory	91
Social Uses of Psychogenics	91
The Protestant Ethic	93
The Epicurean Ethic	94
Camp	94
Corruption: Practice	94
Style	94
Exploration	96
Activism	97
Instrumental	98
The Rackets	99
An Inventory	100
The Politics of Experience: R. D. Laing	105
REFERENCES	107
INDEX	111