

Contents

Preface	vii
Notes on the Contributors	viii
Introduction: Beyond Atlantic History Manuela Albertone and Antonino De Francesco	1
Part I Political Ideas and Economic Models in Eighteenth-Century Europe and America	15
1 The One and the Many: The Two Revolutions Question and the 'Consumer-Commercial' Atlantic, 1789 to the Present Allan Potofsky	17
2 Democracy and Equality in the Radical Enlightenment: Revolutionary Ideology before 1789 Jonathan Israel	46
3 Between Republicanism and the Enlightenment: Turgot and Adams Maria Luisa Pesante	61
4 Nicolas Bergasse and Alexander Hamilton: The Role of the Judiciary in the Separation of Powers and Two Conceptions of Constitutional Order Pasquale Pasquino	80
5 Neutrality and Trade in the Dutch Republic (1775–1783): Preludes to a Piecemeal Revolution Koen Stapelbroek	100
Part II Free Trade and Democratic Revolutions in Eighteenth-Century Europe and America	121
6 Thomas Jefferson and French Economic Thought: A Mutual Exchange of Ideas Manuela Albertone	123

7	The Question of Slavery in the Physiocratic Texts: A Rereading of an Old Debate Marcel Dorigny	147
8	'A New Kind of Federalism': Benjamin Constant and Modern Europe Biancamaria Fontana	163
9	Industry, Government and Europe: From the Mercantilists to Saint-Simon Gino Longhitano	180
Part III The American and the French Revolutions: From Two Continents a New Political World		201
10	France and the United States at the End of the Eighteenth Century James Roger Sharp	203
11	The French and North American Revolutions in Comparative Perspective Richard Whatmore	219
12	Federalist Obsession and Jacobin Conspiracy: France and the United States in a Time of Revolution, 1789–1794 Antonino De Francesco	239
13	In Search of the Atlantic Republic: 1660–1776–1799 in the Mirror Pierre Serna	257
14	The Republican Imagination and Race: The Case of the Haitian Revolution Bernard Gainot	276
	Index	294