CONTENTS

List of Illustrations page xi
Preface xiii
Abbreviations xxiii

Prologue: The Foundations of U.S. Information Overseas ............... 1

1 Getting the Sheep to Speak: The Truman Years, 1945–53 .............. 22
  1) Surviving the Peace: Bill Benton Lays the Foundations, 1945–47 23
  2) Waging Cold War: George V. Allen Holds the Fort, 1947–49 37
  4) Things Left Undone: The Independence Debate, 1950–53 67

2 Mobilizing “the P-Factor”: Eisenhower and the Birth of the USIA, 1953–56 .......................................................... 81
  1) The Ordeal: The McCarthy Crisis and the Creation of the USIA, January–July, 1953 82
  2) Streibert Takes Charge: The Structure of the USIA in 1953 96
  3) From “Atoms for Peace” to “People’s Capitalism”: The USIA’s Output, 1954–56 104
  4) The USIA and Cold War Geopolitics: 1954–56 120

3 In the Shadow of Sputnik: The Second Eisenhower Administration, 1957–61 ................................................................. 134
  1) “Egghead with Troubles”: Arthur Larson and the USIA in 1957 135
  2) Breaking the “Milwaukee Effect”: The Return of George V. Allen 149
  3) Crusading with Culture: The Cultural Program in the U.S.S.R., 1958–60 161
  4) Allen’s USIA to January 1961: The VOA Charter and the Sprague Committee 171
4 Inventing Truth: The Kennedy Administration, 1961–63 ............... 189
  1) Facing Khrushchev: Murrow’s USIA to December 1961 .......... 191
  2) Representing America in 1962: USIA Film and Civil Rights ... 206
  3) The Cuban Missile Crisis ........................................... 214
  4) From Vietnam to Dallas ............................................. 218

5 Maintaining Confidence: The Early Johnson Years, 1963–65 .......... 227
  1) Zenith: The USIA and the Kennedy Assassination, November 1963–August 1965 .................................................. 228
  2) Carl Rowan: Civil Rights and Cold War Propaganda ............. 233
  3) The USIA in the Developing World: From the Indonesian Crisis to the Dominican Intervention, 1964–65 .... 237
  4) The Road to JUSPAO: The USIA in Vietnam to July 1965 ....... 245

6 “My Radio Station”: The Johnson Administration, 1965–69 ........... 255
  1) “Public Diplomacy” and a Public Diplomat: Leonard Marks at the USIA ................................................................. 256
  2) JUSPAO at Work: The USIA in Vietnam, August 1965–68 ....... 267
  3) Projecting the Great Society ............................................ 278
  4) Nadir: The USIA, World Opinion, and the Crisis of the Late 1960s ................................................................. 285

7 Surviving Détente: The Nixon Years, 1969–74 .......................... 293
  1) The True Believer: Frank Shakespeare and the USIA, 1969–70 .... 294
  2) Nixon’s Vietnam, 1969–74 .......................................... 306
  3) Fighting for Control: Shakespeare’s Struggle for Autonomy, 1971–72 ................................................................. 313
  4) Watergate and James Keogh: January 1973–August 1974 ....... 321

8 A New Beginning: The Ford Administration, 1974–77 .................. 333
  1) Navigating the Rapids, 1974–75 ........................................ 334
  2) The Stanton Commission, 1974–75 ................................... 340
  3) The End in Vietnam and the VOA Charter, 1975–76 ............. 346
  4) Rehumanizing America: The Bicentennial, 1976 .................. 351

9 From the “Two-Way” Mandate to the Second Cold War: The Carter Administration, 1977–81 .................................................... 360
  1) Beyond Stanton: Taming the VOA and Creating the ICA, 1977–78 .... 361
  2) John Reinhardt’s Good Fight: Carter’s Foreign Policy to December 1978 ................................................................. 374
  3) Progress and Peril: The ICA in 1979 ................................... 382
  4) Valley of the Shadow: Iran and Afghanistan, 1979–81 .......... 386
10 “Project Truth”: The First Reagan Administration, 1981–84 ........ 399
   1) The Arrival of Charles Z. Wick 400
   2) The Crisis at the Voice of America, 1981–82 412
   3) From “Project Democracy” to WORLDNET: Confronting Communism in 1983 421
   4) Wick under Fire: The USIA in 1984 435

11 Showdown: The Second Reagan Administration, 1985–89 ........ 442
   1) Facing Gorbachev, 1985 443
   2) The Road to Reykjavik, 1986 453
   3) In the Shadow of Iran–Contra, 1987 461
   4) The Home Stretch, 1988–89 474

Epilogue: Victory and the Strange Death of the USIA, 1989–99 ..... 482

Conclusion: Trajectories, Maps, and Lessons from the Past of U.S.
Public Diplomacy .......................................................... 486
   1) Five Trajectories 486
   2) Three Maps 493
   3) Seven Lessons 496

Selected Bibliography .................................................. 505

Index ................................................................. 519