

Contents

Acknowledgements	9
List of Abbreviations	11
Introduction
Mourning Becomes Prometheus: History, Space, Gender and Death in Balzac	13
Part One: Violence and Form
Chapter One
Violence and Form in the Balzac Novel: Les Paysans , Illusions perdues and Splendeurs et misères des courtisanes	33
Chapter Two
The Origins of Violence in Balzac: From Sténie to El Verdugo	57
Part Two: The Violence of History
Chapter Three
Balzac 'le fataliste'? Historical Materialism and Material Violence in Sur Catherine de Médicis and Le Réquisitionnaire	81
Chapter Four
Post-Revolutionary Violence: Crossroads of Terror in Une ténébreuse affaire	101

Part Three: The Violence of Space and Place

Chapter Five

The Violence of Touraine: Le Lys dans la vallée

127

Chapter Six:

Out in the City: History, Violence and Gender in L'Envers de l'histoire contemporaine

147

Part Four: The Violence of Sexuality and Gender

Chapter Seven

Violating Sexual Difference: La Fausse maîtresse, Autre étude de femme, and La Fille aux yeux d'or

183

Chapter Eight

Violent Sexualities? The Representation of Prostitution and the Prostitution of Representation

207

Part Five: The Violence of Death

Chapter Nine

Violence, Politics and Death: Z. Marcas

229

Chapter Ten

The Poetics of Death in Albert Savarus

247

Conclusion

Mourning Becomes Prometheus: Homeopathy,
Repair – and Unrest

265

Bibliography

Index

269

283