

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
Bibliographical Note on the 'Governmentality lectures'	x
Introduction: Governmentality today	1
1 Basic Concepts and Themes	16
Government and governmentality	17
An analytics of government	30
Analysing regimes of government	37
2 Genealogy and Governmentality	52
Genealogy and government	53
Liberalism, critique and 'the social'	61
Neo-liberalism and Foucault	69
3 Dependency and Empowerment: Two Case Studies	75
Dependency	75
Empowerment	82
Conclusion	86
4 Pastoral Power, Police and Reason of State	89
Pastoral power	90
Reason of state and police	101
Conclusion	115
5 Bio-Politics and Sovereignty	117
Bio-politics	118
Sovereignty and the governmentalization of the state	122
6 Liberalism	133
Economy	134
Security	137
Law and norm	140
Society and social government	146

7 Authoritarian Governmentality	155
The illiberality of liberal government	156
Bio-politics, race and non-liberal rule	163
8 Neo-Liberalism and Advanced Liberal Government	175
Society, freedom and reform	176
Advanced liberal government	192
A post-welfarist regime of the social	200
9 Risk and Reflexive Government	205
Two approaches to risk	206
Risk and reflexive modernization	208
Insurance and government	212
Reflexive government	217
10 International Governmentality	228
International reasons and space	229
Contemporary international government	241
Conclusion	247
Conclusion: 'Not Bad ... but Dangerous'	250
Postscript to the Second Edition: The Crisis of     Neo-Liberal Governmentality?	261
Glossary	266
Bibliography	271
Index	286