

CONTENTS

- 11 Introduction
- 19 The emperor Charles iv in Lucca:
political iconography and political reality
- 53 «La dolce libertà». Allegories of Liberty in the Chronicles of Giovanni Sercambi
- 77 The rejection of imperial iconography and the images of opposition devised by the Guelfs
- 91 Imagines imperiales in coelis et in terris
- 131 The mosaic on the atrium of Prague Cathedral
- 159 The “second Lucca”
- 197 Karolus imperator
- 209 Places of power
- 251 The sovereignty of the Volto Santo
- 267 Altars and political patronage
- 283 The mounted Lucchese and St Martin
- 301 The patron saint, a church, a family
- 317 Two swords
- 327 A musical satire
- 343 The triumph of Caesar
- 353 The problematic pantheon of heroes
- APPENDIX
- 375 Documentary appendix
- 393 Bibliography