

CONTENTS

Yevgenia Petrova . Foreword	6
Nina Suetina . Foreword	7
Selim Khan-Magomedov . Nikolai Suetin in the Structure of Volumetric Suprematism	8
Vasily Rakitin . "The abyss between the visible world and the Suprematist world is enormous. Unovis is the only bridge across this abyss"	9
"Five years (five centuries, old style) later". The end or the beginning.
The Petrograd crossing	23
"The innovators' system offered a way of developing the tradition".
Or about "red" and "white" porcelain	26
Ideals and practice. Or how to find many ways out of impasses	31
"Easily and playfully children may arrange toy bricks in lovely 'architectons'..."	39
"A thing of quality defies being produced in quantity"	43
Can Suprematism be a lifetime commitment?	44
Plus X ...	46
"A pine forest – is it alien to the painter?"	51
"Is an icon a painting? – No, it's no painting... but is it art? – Yes, it is art"	53
"Fight goes on as the opponents keep capturing each other's strongholds": Let the art laboratory be!	57
"Dialectic way of the tractor from factory to farm field"	58
"History has already ended, but you didn't notice it..."	61
Art is not where there is ideology but where there is craftsmanship"	67
"In Paris it was real art... After Paris everything looks different"	74
"I make a low bow to all your works and beg them to save your viability..."	79
"...Our failures are more needed than their achievements"	82
Elena Ivanova . Nikolai Suetin's Porcelain	87
Illustrations
Painting	96
Drawing and Watercolours	116
Design of Vitebsk Decoration	154
Book Jackets, Sketches of Posters	160
Architectural Ideas, Furniture Design	170
Sketches of Fabric Design	188
Sketches of Porcelains	194
Sketches for Items of Applied Art	200
Porcelain	208
Appendix
Archives Section	254
Chronological Table	268
Major Exhibitions	273
Select Bibliography	279
Abbreviations	282
Index	283