

TABLE OF CONTENT

PART 1: TEACHERS' PROFESSIONALISM: STANDARDS, BELIEFS, SCHEMAS, EXPERTISE

Psychological Variables and Evaluation of Distinctive Characteristics of Teaching Standards Carmine Maiello & Fritz Oser	3
Future Teachers' Beliefs on the Nature of Mathematics Sigrid Blömeke, Anja Felbrich & Christiane Müller	25
Targeting Vocational Teacher Schemas Through Analysis of the Objects and Instruments of Inter-Related Activity Systems John Stevenson	47
How to Support Vocational Teachers to Become Experts? Hans Gruber	63

PART 2: MODULES FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF TEACHERS' PROFESSIONALISM

Microanalyses of Critical Learning Incidents and Their Impact on Teacher Education and Training – Some Unserious Headings for Serious Considerations Gerhard Steiner & Heidi Steiner	71
Measurement of Motivation: A State Perspective on Motivation in Learning Objects Esther Winther	93
Helping Students Improve Collaborative Learning Monique Boekaerts	109
Initiating Intercultural Learning – Using a “Design Experiment” Susanne Weber	119

PART 3: EFFECTS OF TEACHER TRAINING

Competences and Standards in Teacher Education in Switzerland and Germany – Do Prospective Teachers Become more Competent through Teacher Training? Matthias Baer, Günter Dörr, Urban Fraefel, Mirjam Kocher, Oliver Küster, Susanna Larcher, Peter Müller, Waltraud Sempert, Corinne Wyss:	145
Authors	175