

Contents

Map x

Book V (1499–1501) 2

- Preparations of the Turks and the Venetians for war* 1 · Battle of the Venetian fleet with the Turkish 8 · Lepanto is taken by the Turks 12 · Antonio Grimani's command of the fleet is abrogated 13 · Wars of Cesare Borgia in Romagna 19 · Return of Ludovico Sforza to Milan 21 · Ludovico and Ascanio are captured 23 · Progress of the war with the Turks 24 · Second battle of the Venetian and Turkish fleets 30 · Methoni is conquered by the Turks; Navarino is taken by the Turks 34 · Coron and Aegina are taken by the Turks 35 · Turks retire to Constantinople 37 · Aegina is recovered by the Venetians; success of the Venetian fleet against the Turks; Samothrace is taken by the Venetians; execution of Carlo Contarini 38 · Spanish sovereigns send fleet in aid of Venetians 39 · Navarino retaken by the Venetians 43 · Cephalonia attacked and taken 44 · Gonzalo de Córdoba granted Venetian citizenship and noble status 46 · Rewards to relatives of those who met death for the Republic 49 · Abduction of a girl by Cesare Borgia 50 · Treaty of the Venetians with King Ladislas of Hungary 52 · Failed attack on Turkish ships at mouth of the Bojana river 53 · Alessio surrenders to the Venetians 55 · Reinforcements granted by Pope Alexander VI to the Venetians against the Turks, and summary of sale of indulgences in the Veneto 56 · Cesare Borgia takes Faenza; death of Cardinal Battista Zen 58 · Navarino again captured by the Turkish Sultan 59 · Megara is destroyed by the Venetians 60 · Durazzo captured by the Turks; death of Doge Agostino Barbarigo 61

Book VI (1501-1504) 86

Narrative of new lands and peoples 1 • Peace agreement of King Louis of France with Emperor Maximilian I; Leonardo Loredan is declared doge 15 • French and Portuguese fleets sent in aid of the Venetians retreat without success; King Federico of Naples is ousted by the kings of France and Spain, who divide the kingdom among themselves 16 • Progress of the war of the Venetians against the Turks; war of the king of Hungary against the Turk 17 • Mytilene is attacked by the Venetian and French fleet 18 • The pirate Eric is captured and burned 20 • Opposing declamations of Antonio Minio and Doge Loredan concerning the acceptance of half-pay of magistracies 21 • Galley-captains denounced who had behaved as cowards 33 • Lucrezia Borgia marries Alfonso d'Este; successes of the king of Hungary against the Turks; Venetian citizens at Constantinople restored to freedom 34 • Towns of the Duke of Urbino are seized in ambush by Cesare Borgia 35 • Anne de Candale marries the king of Hungary and comes to Venice; King Louis again comes to Italy, and the war of the same with the sovereigns of Spain on account of the borders of his dominion in the Kingdom of Naples 36 • Lefkada is taken by the Venetians 38 • Guidobaldo, finding no protection with King Louis, goes to Venice; then with the aid of the Orsini he returns to his duchy; many peoples wishing to surrender to the Republic are rejected 41 • Embassy of the Spanish sovereigns to the Senate 42 • Guidobaldo is again ousted by Cesare, and many princes are killed by the same 44 • A law is passed against those who purchase benefices 45 • Death of Cardinal Giovanni Michiel 46 • Peace agreement of Bayazid with Venice and the king of Hungary 47 • King Louis of France seeks a new treaty with Venice 48 • Death of Pope Alexander VI and misfortunes of Cesare Borgia; death of Benedetto Pesaro 49 • Guidobaldo again returns into his duchy 50 • Pope Pius

III is elected and dies; Julius II succeeds him 52 • Many towns in Romagna surrender to the Republic 55 • Machinations of Florence against Venice 56 • Pandolfo Malatesta hands Rimini over to Venice 58 • Faenza is taken by the Venetians 59 • Pope Julius' designs against the Venetians 60 • Niccolò Orsini's command is extended 66

Book VII (1504–1509) 176

Francesco Maria della Rovere is adopted by Guidobaldo 2 • Treaty between Louis and Maximilian 3 • Tron is hanged in Venice for treason; Giovanni Sforza, lord of Pesaro, is married in Venice; death of Queen Isabella of Spain; death of Ercole d'Este 4 • Fondaco de' Tedeschi at Venice burned, rebuilt more lavishly by the Senate 5 • Disputes settled between Senate and Pope Julius, and eight ambassadors sent to him 6 • Alfonso d'Este arrives in Venice; treaty of Louis with Ferdinand of Aragon 8 • War with pirates; embassy of the sultan of Tunis to the Senate, and his gifts; Nuremberg asks for a sample of Venetian laws 9 • Senate hands Alessio over to the Turkish sultan; death of Sabellico; ambassador of the sultan of Egypt comes to Venice to settle disputes 10 • Letter of Pope Julius is rejected by the Senate 11 • Departure of Philip of Austria for Spain, and his death; King Ferdinand arrives in Naples 12 • Giovanni Bentivoglio is driven from Bologna by Pope Julius 13 • Senate decree passed against those who use the influence of princes or ambassadors 14 • Death of Pietro Barozzi; citizenship and security granted to Genoese at their request 15 • Louis arrives in Italy; conquest of Genoa; conversation of the same with King Ferdinand, and his return to Italy 16 • Soldiers from countryside levied by Venetians 17 • Maximilian's request for permission to cross with his army denied; the Republic's preparation for war 18 • The Germans invade Tyrol and Friuli 23 • Losses of the same at Pieve di Cadore 28 • Trieste is conquered by the Venetians, with many other towns 37 • Truce between Venetians and Maximilian 41 • Massive earthquake on Crete; Contarini Camali dies in shipwreck 44 • Law passed against those who seek magistracies by bribes 45 • Maximilian's plea for peace is denied 46 • Strange people are captured in the British ocean 50 • The League of Cambrai 51 • Preparations of Venice for war 59 • Gunpowder in the Arsenal struck by fire 62 • Deceptions of the king of Spain 63 • Beginning of war against Venice 64 • Venetians strike a treaty with four Swiss cantons 67 • The king of France declares war on Venice 69 • Venice excommunicated by the pope 78 • The king of France arrives in Milan, and his troops 82 • Battle of the Venetians and French at the Adda 83

Book VIII (1509) 296

Strategy and success of the Venetians after the defeat 1 • Venice offers towns of Apulia to King Ferdinand 12 • Brescia surrenders to King Louis 14 • Monks of San Giorgio go from Venice to Ferrara 16 • Towns of Romagna also handed over to Pope Julius, and to Maximilian those which belong to the Holy Roman Empire; treachery of Pope Julius and Alfonso d'Este 17 • Many states surrender to the French 19 • Venetians turn their strategy toward the defense of the city 20 • Treviso returns under Venetian dominion 29 • Wrongs of Alfonso d'Este toward Venice 30 • Exchange of Venetian and French prisoners 31 • Antonio Grimani is recalled from exile 34 • The fortress of Cremona is seized by the French 38 • Pope Julius offers to negotiate with Venice 39 • Maximilian invades Venetian territory 40 • How the Venetian ambassadors are received by Julius 43 • After a debate, Padua is retaken by Venice 46

• CONTENTS •

Note on the Text and Translation	373
Notes to the Text	375
Notes to the Translation	377
Bibliography	389
Index	391