

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
--------------------	---

The Context of Politics and Ideology

Uwe Böker

Ruins from Above and from Below: Picturesque Landscapes and Urban 'Pulling Down Houses' during the Gordon Riots	25
--	----

Christoph Houswitschka

The Politics of Sketching in Late Eighteenth-Century Reform Writings	45
--	----

The Literary Imagination

Shane Agin

Sketch, Illustration and the Power of Imagination: Aesthetic Production and Reception in Eighteenth-Century France	59
---	----

Sophie Marchand

Les Esquisses Dramatiques de Diderot: Pour une 'Esthétique de l'Inchoatif'	71
--	----

Jonathan Lamb

The Superiority of the Undone: Built Ruins and Ruined Patriots	83
--	----

Joanna Stalnaker

The Post-Enlightenment Sketch: Bernardin de Saint-Pierre's Études de la Nature	97
--	----

Jeffrey Hopes

Sketching from Life: Philip Thicknesse's A Sketch of the Life and Paintings of Thomas Gainsborough (1788)	107
--	-----

The Context of Art

Peter Wagner
Minding the Gaps: Ellipses in William Hogarth's Narrative Art 121

Bernadette Fort
The Sketch as Transgression: Greuze's Roman Charity 153

Catherine Purcell
Representing Ruins: Convention and Modernity in Joseph Wright's Paintings 179

A. Cassandra Albinson
The Hidden Stratum of the Sketch: Thomas Lawrence and the Geology of English Portraiture in the Eighteenth Century 197

Pierre-François Gorse
Topographies of the Imagination: Turner's Sketches as Acts of Memory and Emergence, as Both Studies and Fragments 211

Theorizing the Ruin and the Sketch

Daniel Brewer
Reading Among the Ruins 231

Werner Wolf
Artificial Textual Ruins: Position in a Typology of 'Fragmentation in Literature' and Major Functions in Eighteenth-Century British Poetry and Fiction 249

Daniel Brewer
The Progress of Sketches 269

Notes on Contributors 281

Index 285