

Contents

Markus A. Denzel, Leipzig Introduction	7
António Ramos dos Santos, Lisbon What pays What? Cashless Payment in Ancient Mesopotamia (626–331 BC).....	15
Jens Ulf-Møller, Copenhagen The Use of an Archaic British-Scandinavian Counting System in the Icelandic Non-monetary Economy, exemplified by the Icelandic Land Registers.....	33
Paola Avallone, Naples Paper Money in the Kingdom of Naples. The Neapolitan Public Banks between the 16 th and 18 th Centuries.....	69
Gabriel Imboden, Brig Une économie capitaliste basée sur l'échange sans argent. Exploitation minière à l'exemple de Gaspard Stockalper de la Tour (1609–1691) de Brigue au pied du Simplon.....	91
Claudia Schnurmann, Hamburg Wampum as a Cultural Broker in Northeastern America, 1620–1660.....	107
Om Prakash, Delhi The Cashless Payment Mechanism in Mughal India: The Working of the Hundi Network.....	131
Sushil Chaudhuri, Calcutta No Ready Money? No Problem! The Role of Hundis (Bills of Exchange) in Early Modern India, c.1600–1800.....	139
Markus A. Denzel, Leipzig The European Bill of Exchange. Its Development from the Middle Ages to 1914.....	153
List of Contributors.....	191