

Contents

Foreword by James T. Richardson.....	9
Introduction.....	13
1 What is Deconversion? – Profiling the Concept.....	17
1.1 From Conversion to Deconversion	18
1.2 Conceptualizing Deconversion	21
1.3 The Religious Styles Perspective on Deconversion.....	23
1.4 The Variety of Deconversion Trajectories.....	25
1.5 Deconversion as Migration in the Religious Field	28
2 Empirical Studies on Deconversion.....	33
2.1 Deconversion in the United States: Survey Results.....	33
2.2 Deconversion in Germany: Survey Results	39
2.3 Deconversion in Cross-Cultural Perspective	43
2.4 Previous Interview Research on Deconversion	45
3 Our Study: Design, Methods and Sample Characteristics.....	51
3.1 The Qualitative Core of our Design.....	51
3.2 The Basic Unit of Research	53
3.3 Methods and Instruments	55
3.4 Sample Description and Levels of Analysis	63
3.5 Summary of Research Questions and Hypotheses.....	67
4 Characteristics and Predictors of Deconversion in Germany and the United States: Quantitative Results	69
4.1 Reliabilities and Intercorrelations among the Scales	69
4.2 How Deconverts Differ from In-Tradition Members	75
4.3 Cross-Cultural Differences: Indications of a Loss for Deconverts in Germany?.....	80
4.4 “More Spiritual than Religious” Self-Identification and Deconversion.....	82

4.5	Summary of Scale Analyses and Group Differences.....	88
4.6	Regression Analysis to Predict Deconversion	90
5	The Variety of Deconversion Narratives: An Overview from Qualitative Results	93
5.1	Qualitative Sample Characteristics and the Evaluation Procedures.....	93
5.2	General Characteristics of the Deconversion Narratives	95
5.3	Where Did the Deconverts Go? – Deconversion Trajectories Quantified.....	97
5.4	Deconversion: Transformation in Faith Development and Religious Styles.....	100
5.5	Preparing for Case Study Analyses and our Typology Construction	107
6	Pursuit of Autonomy.....	113
6.1	“Church for Me right now is Non-existent.” Gina.....	113
6.2	“Now I’m Kind of just Exploring ...” Samantha	119
6.3	“It Took Me a Long Time after I Left the Religion to Stop Believing in God:” Timothy	124
6.4	Coming-Out and Stepping Out – Issues of (Sexual) Identity: Christoph.....	128
6.5	“Eventually I Became like More and More Critical of My Religion:” Mehmet.....	133
6.6	Conclusion.....	136
7	Debarred from Paradise	139
7.1	Love and Hate for the Guru – and a Recovery: Pia	139
7.2	“... suddenly the Frame of Reference is Missing:” Peter	143
7.3	From Feeling Sheltered to Feeling Cheated: Elisabeth.....	147
7.4	“... It’s like Watching when Your Relatives Die:” Adam.....	151
7.5	Regretting Lost Years: Franz	156
7.6	“Scientology is Very Godless ...:” Fiona	159
7.7	“I ... Noticed a Lot of ... Double Standard Moral and a Lot of Dishonesty:” Celia	164
7.8	Conclusion.....	169

8	Finding a New Frame of Reference	171
8.1	“... at that Moment God Spoke to Me” – the End of the Search: Sabina	171
8.2	“Inside Myself I have this Certainty...” Viviane.....	175
8.3	Discovering Intrinsic Religion: Melina	179
8.4	“I Became Orthodox ... Because of that Tradition, the Holy Tradition:” Dan	183
8.5	“The Saints Things ... is Really Big with Me”: Jasmin	188
8.6	Conclusion.....	192
9	Life-Long Quests – Late Revisions	195
9.1	Looking Back on a “Cult” of the Seventies: Erica	195
9.2	Midlife Revisions of a Seeker: Tom	199
9.3	Synthetic-Conventional Heresy: Gudrun.....	203
9.4	Ongoing Quest and Multiple Deconversions: Konrad.....	209
9.5	Conclusion.....	216
10	Deconversion in Biographical and Cultural Perspective: Conclusions and Discussion	217
10.1	What is Deconversion?	218
10.2	How Does Deconversion Come About? – Motivations and Causes	226
10.3	What Does One Get Out of Deconversion? – About Gains and Losses.....	228
10.4	Deconversion Dynamics in the Religious Field.....	235
10.5	Deconversion and Spiritual Quest – An Outlook	239
	References.....	241
	List of Figures and Tables.....	250
	Index of Names	253
	Index of Subjects.....	254
	Author Information	258