

Contents

Acknowledgements 13

Preface 15

INTRODUCTION.

Post-Traumatic Cinema 17

I. The First Axis: Cinema 18

II. The Second Axis: Trauma 21

III. The Third Axis: Masculinity 25

IV. Cinema, Trauma, and Masculinity 28

PART I. POST-TRAUMATIC NEW GERMAN CINEMA AFTER WORLD WAR II

CHAPTER 1.

Identity, Identification, and Sexuality 33

I. Three Complexes: Continuity,
Authenticity, and Masculinity 33

II. Mourning Work, Undermining Melancholy 37

III. Gender and Excesses of the Past 41

IV. Mutant Sexuality 45

V. Three Models: Infantile Asexual,
Utopian Bisexual, Transsexual 46

CHAPTER 2.

The Infantile Asexual Model 63

I. Description of the Model 63

II. Kaspar – The Genderless Body 69

III. Oskar – The Body, The Drum, The Voice 83

IV. Two Faces of Revolt, One Body 88

VI. Redemption through Mirror Relations: Paris, Texas 89

| | |
|--|-----|
| CHAPTER 3. | |
| The Utopian Bisexual Model | 105 |
| I. Description of the Model | 105 |
| II. The Journey into Childhood: Kings of the Road | 111 |
| CHAPTER 4. | |
| The Transsexual Model | 125 |
| I. Description of the Model | 126 |
| II. Disembodied Voice | 139 |
| CHAPTER 5. | |
| Post-Traumatic NGC Models | 141 |
| I. Return of the Displaced | 142 |
| II. Subverting the Paradigm of Mourning Work | 142 |
| III. NGC– Radicalism towards the Past..... | 144 |
| IV. Neither Betrayal of the Fatherland nor Heimat | 146 |
| V. Between Narrative Fetishism and Body Memory..... | 148 |
| VI. Multifaceted Reflexivity | 149 |
| VII. Return of History as Body..... | 150 |

PART II. AMERICAN POST-TRAUMATIC CINEMA IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE VIETNAM WAR

| | |
|---|-----|
| CHAPTER 6. | |
| Captivity, Crisis, and Fantasy | 153 |
| I. Dialectics of Defeat: From Hunter to Captive | 155 |
| II. Oedipal Structures, Fraternal Structures: Patricide, Fratricide..... | 159 |
| III. Masculinity without Symbolization..... | 163 |
| IV. Sexuality | 165 |
| V. Motifs in Vietnam War Films..... | 167 |
| VI. Three Models: Asexual Hyper-Masculine, Homoerotic, Impotent..... | 169 |
| CHAPTER 7. | |
| The Asexual Hyper-Masculine Model | 173 |
| I. Description of the Model | 173 |
| II. The Deer Hunter | 174 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| III. Defeated Masculinity and the Negation of History | 188 |
| IV. Rescue vs. Asexuality: Rambo, Braddock, Forrest..... | 190 |
| V. Murderer vs. the Other: Taxi Driver | 193 |
| VI. The Tortured Body | 198 |
| CHAPTER 8. | |
| The Homoerotic Model | 201 |
| I. Description of the Model | 201 |
| II. Patricide and Failure: Full Metal Jacket | 203 |
| III. Destroying Fraternal Masculinity in Order to Save It: Platoon | 216 |
| CHAPTER 9. | |
| The Impotent Model | 225 |
| I. Description of the Model | 225 |
| II. Radical Sexuality in Coming Home | 228 |
| III. From the Abjected to the Symbolic Body: Born on the 4th of July | 232 |
| IV. Adaptation – Subversion..... | 235 |
| CHAPTER 10. | |
| Post-Traumatic Vietnam War Cinema Models | 237 |
| Conclusion | 241 |
| I. A Special Truth..... | 241 |
| II. Trauma and History | 242 |
| III. Post-Trauma and Gender | 243 |
| IV. The Spectator as the Moral Other | 245 |
| V. Six Models of Post-Traumatic Cinema..... | 246 |
| VI. Unresolved Issues | 247 |
| Epilogue | 249 |
| Filmography | 251 |
| Bibliography | 257 |
| References | 273 |
| Index | 281 |