

Table of Contents

Introduction (Editors)	7
------------------------	---

Part I

Poets and Fiction Writers on Globalisation and Secularisation

Chapter 1	Eamon Maher	15
“Ma paroisse est dévorée par l’ennui”: Secularisation in George-Bernanos’ Journal d’un curé de campagne and John McGahern’s That They May Face the Rising Sun
Chapter 2	Brian Walsh	31
The Place of the Present in the Poetry of Seamus Heaney and Derek Mahon
Chapter 3	Paula Murphy	49
From Ferry to Flight: Globalising and Secularising Irish Women
Chapter 4	Peter D. T. Guy	63
McGahern, Proust and the Universality of Memory
Chapter 5	Wacław Grzybowski	79
Lux ex Armorica : The Celtic Contemplative Consciousness versus Secularisation in Thomas McGreevy’s Breton Oracles
Chapter 6	Brigitte Bastiat	91
The Hostage by Brendan Behan: A Tolerant and Secular Representation of Irish Society

Chapter 7	Jean Brihault	101
Dermot Bolger, romancier de la mondialisation ?

Part II

Society on the Wave of Secularisation and Globalisation

Chapter 8	Catherine Mignant	123
Strategies to 'save' Globalised Secular Society: A Critical Assessment
Chapter 9	Mary Pierse	147
In Careful and Carefree Secular Engagements: Towards Understanding the Saecula
Chapter 10	Jean-Christophe Penet	163
Ultramodernity and the Redefinition of Secularisation as the Restructuration of Belief in Contemporary France and Ireland
Chapter 11	Véronique Gauthier	185
Religion, économie et mondialisation : une analyse institutionnaliste
Chapter 12	Patrick Claffey	195
Masters and Servants: Joseph Pagnol, Brian McMahon and the Primary School
Chapter 13	Anne Goarzin	219
Faith, Hope and Debris: Globalisation and Secularisation in the Work of Paul Durcan and John Kindness
Chapter 14	Catherine Fravalo and Angela Feeney	233
La Laïcité à la française peut-elle apporter des solutions aux défis que pose à l'enseignement en Irlande le multiculturalisme ?
Chapter 15	Eugene O'Brien	249
'The Humanities of Tomorrow': Negotiating Globalisation and Secularisation
Notes on Contributors		271
Index		277