

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements .....	xi
Sigla and Abbreviations .....	xiii
Chapter One: Job 28 as Poetry .....	1
1.1 Job 28 as Problematic Masterpiece .....	1
1.2 Philology and Literature in the Study of Biblical Poetry .....	3
1.3 Job 28 in Current Research: A Selected Survey .....	5
1.3.1 Commentaries .....	5
1.3.2 Essays and Monographs on Job 28 .....	8
1.3.3 Job 28 in Monographs on the Book of Job .....	14
1.3.4 Studies on the Poetry of Job 28 .....	16
1.4 The Aims of this Study .....	17
1.5 A Note on Poetic Terminology .....	20
Chapter Two: Translation and Vocalized Text .....	22
2.1 Introduction .....	22
2.2 Translation .....	23
2.3 Vocalized Text .....	25
Chapter Three: A Reading of Job 28 .....	27
3.1 Introduction .....	27
3.2 Planes of Meaning in Job 28: Realistic and Symbolic .....	30
3.3 Job 28 and the Deeds of Ancient Mesopotamian Kings .....	31
3.3.1 Akkadian Royal Inscriptions .....	32
3.3.2 The Standard Babylonian Gilgamesh Epic .....	35
3.4 The Movement and Structure of the Poem .....	38
3.5 Reading Section One (vv. 1-11) .....	39
3.6 Re-reading Section One (vv. 1-11) .....	62
3.7 Section Two (vv. 12-14, 20-22) .....	87
3.8 Section Three (vv. 23-28) .....	92
Chapter Four: A Philological and Textual Study of Job 28 .....	105
4.1 Introduction .....	105
4.2 Texts and Versions Consulted in This Study .....	106
4.2.1 Witnesses to the Masoretic Text .....	106
4.2.2 Witnesses to the Greek Text .....	108

4.2.3	The Peshitta .....	112
4.2.4	The Vulgate .....	113
4.2.5	The Rabbinic Targum .....	113
4.2.6	Job at Qumran .....	115
4.3	Commentary on Job 28:1-14, 20-28 .....	117
1a.	Indeed .....	117
1a.	source .....	123
1b.	a place for gold which is refined .....	124
2b.	hard .....	126
3a-4b.	Setting a bound... {they wander} .....	128
3aβ.	he .....	128
3aβ.	probes .....	130
3b.	stone of deepest gloom .....	131
4aα.	He breaches course&lt;s&gt; far from dwellers .....	134
4aβ.	ones forgotten by passers-by .....	139
4b.	They are bereft of humanity .....	140
5a-9a.	.....	143
5a.	A land from which food springs forth .....	143
5b.	beneath transformed as fire .....	144
6a.	A place of lapis is its stones .....	146
6b.	which has dust of gold .....	147
7a.	path .....	148
7a.	bird of prey .....	148
7b.	gazed .....	149
7b.	falcon .....	150
8a.	thrashed .....	150
8a.	serpents .....	151
8b.	moved over .....	154
8b.	lion .....	154
9a.	hard rock .....	159
9a.	He assaults .....	161
9b.	overturns summits at the roots .....	162
10a.	He splits streams in the mountains .....	163
10b.	His eye sees every precious thing .....	166
11a.	the sources of the rivers .....	167
11a.	He binds up .....	169
11b.	brings the dark thing to light .....	170
12a.	wisdom .....	173
12a.	where is it found .....	175
12b.	understanding .....	176
13a.	its abode .....	177
13b.	nor is it found in the land of the living .....	178

14a-19b .....	178
14a. Deep says, "It is not in me" .....	179
14b. Sea says, "It is not with me" .....	181
20a. But wisdom—from where does it come? .....	182
20b. Where is the place of understanding? .....	182
21a. It is darkened from the eyes of all beasts .....	182
21b-22a .....	184
22a. Destruction and Death say .....	184
22a. "Our ears have heard its rumor" .....	185
23a. God perceives its path .....	186
23b. He knows its place .....	186
24a-27b. Because... probed it .....	187
24a. Because he gazes at the edges of the earth .....	187
24b. sees beneath all the heavens .....	190
25a. When he made a weight for the wind .....	190
25b. apportioned the waters by measure .....	192
26a. when he made a groove for the rain .....	193
26b-27a .....	195
26b. and a track for the thundershower .....	195
27a-b. then he saw it... probed it .....	199
28a-b. and he said... understanding .....	204
28aα. and he said to the human .....	206
28aα-b. "Behold, awe of the Lord... to turn from evil..." .....	207
Chapter Five: The "Structured Commentary" in Job 28:15-19 .....	211
5.1 Translation .....	211
5.2 Vocalized Text .....	211
5.3 Discussion .....	212
5.4 Commentary on Job 28:15-19 .....	216
15a. Fine gold cannot be given in its place .....	216
15b. Silver cannot be weighed for its purchase price .....	218
16a. It cannot be paid for with the gold of Ophir .....	219
16b. with precious carnelian or lapis-lazuli .....	221
17a. Neither gold nor glass can be estimated against it .....	222
17b. Ornaments of pure gold are not its exchange .....	223
18a. Neither pearls nor rock crystal should be mentioned .....	224
18b. A sack of wisdom is more precious than corals .....	227
19a. Topaz stones of Cush cannot be estimated against it .....	229
19b. It cannot be paid for with pure gold .....	231
Chapter Six: Conclusions .....	232
6.1 Poetic Language in Job 28 .....	232

6.2 The Conceptual Background(s) of the Poem .....	233
6.3 The Subject of Verses 3-11 .....	234
6.4 The Integrity and Structure of the Poem .....	234
6.5 Wisdom in Job 28 .....	235
6.6 The Genre of Job 28 .....	236
6.7 The Place and Function of Job 28 in the Book of Job .....	241
 Selected Bibliography .....	 245
 Index of Ancient Texts .....	 273
Biblical Texts .....	273
Non-Biblical Texts .....	283
 Index of Authors .....	 289