

Table of Contents

Preface

I. FUNDAMENTALS

GERT MELVILLE

Construction and deconstruction of religious symbols in the Middle Ages 3

JENS RÖHRKASTEN

Reality and symbolic meaning among the early
Franciscans 21

II. CASE STUDIES

1. Rituals in internal organisation

JÖRG SONNTAG

Welcoming high guests to the paradise of the monks:
Social interactions and symbolic moments of monastic self-representation according to Lanfranc's constitutions 45

ANNETTE KEHNEL/MIRJAM MENCEJ

Representing eternity: Circular movement in the cloister, round dancing, winding-staircases and dancing angels 67

MARTIN HEALE

Mitres and arms: Aspects of the self-representation of the monastic superior in late medieval England 99

2. Symbolism in the use of space, architecture and art

JULIE KERR

The symbolic significance of hospitality

125

MARGIT MERSCH

Programme, pragmatism and symbolism in mendicant architecture

143

ANNE MÜLLER

Presenting identity in the cloister: Remarks on Benedictine and mendicant concepts of space

167

PETER DÄNHARDT

Building (on) the church: Craftsmanship and practical skills in the life of English abbots

189

3. Symbolism in social interaction

EMILIA JAMROZIAK

Cistercian identities on the northern peripheries of medieval Europe from the twelfth to the late fourteenth century

209

FRANCES ANDREWS

Self-representation in times of crisis: The case of the early Humiliati

221

ANDREW ABRAM

Identity and remembrance: Interaction between Augustinian houses and their benefactors in an English context

233

JAMES G. CLARK

The self-image of the scholar monk in late medieval England

245

4. Symbolic constructions of the past

JULIAN LUXFORD
Texts and images of Carthusian foundation	275
ANTONIO SENNIS
The power of time: Looking at the past in medieval monasteries	307
JANET BURTON
Constructing a corporate identity: The Historia Fundationis of the Cistercian abbeys of Byland and Jervaulx	327
MICHAEL ROBSON, OFMConv.
The Franciscans in the custody of York: Evidence drawn from chronicles and annals	341
KAREN STÖBER
Self-representation of medieval religious communities in their writing of history	369
MARTIAL STAUB
Conclusion	385

Index