

Contents

FRANCISCO MICAVILA Preface	9
-------------------------------------	---

MARÍA LUISA PÉREZ CAÑADO Introduction and Overview	17
---	----

Challenge I Coordinating English Studies in the European Higher Education Area

IAN TUDOR / WOLFGANG MACKIEWICZ Bologna and Languages: Reference Points for Higher Education Language Policy Development.....	35
---	----

ANTONIO BUENO GONZÁLEZ / JESÚS M. NIETO GARCÍA English Language Teaching in the European Higher Education Area (EHEA): Towards Uniformity or Diversity?	55
---	----

Challenge II Fostering General and Specific Competencies in English Language Teaching

MIKE FLEMING Perspectives on the Use of Competence Statements in the Teaching of the English Language	75
---	----

JESÚS PÉREZ GONZÁLEZ Competencies in Language Teaching: From their Conceptualisation to their Concretion in the Curriculum.....	93
---	----

Challenge III

Adapting Methodologically to the ECTS: Some Practical Accounts and Experiences

MARÍA LUISA PÉREZ CAÑADO / PAIGE D. WARE Why CMC and VLE are Especially Suited to the ECTS: The Case of Telecollaboration in English Studies.....	111
---	-----

ALFONSO CEBALLOS MUÑOZ / CARMEN FERNÁNDEZ MARTÍN Across the Curriculum: English Transverse Activities in ECTS.....	151
---	-----

BARRY PENNOCK-SPECK European Convergence and the Role of ICT in English Studies at the Universitat de València: Lessons Learned and Prospects for the Future	169
---	-----

RUBÉN CHACÓN-BELTRÁN Learner Autonomy and Lifelong Learning: Technological Solutions in the European Higher Education Area.....	187
---	-----

JAMES LAWLEY An EFL Grammar Checker that Really Works: Making Bologna Come True	197
---	-----

Challenge IV
Assessing Language Learning in the ECTS

KENT LÖFGREN / TERENCE KARRAN
Using Assessment with ECTS: Untangling the Knots.....207

DANIEL MADRID / STEPHEN HUGHES
The Implementation of the European Credit Transfer System
in Initial Foreign Language Teacher Training.....227

Notes on Contributors.....245