

CONTENTS

Preface and acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	I

PART I: IMAGES AND IDEAS: WOMEN IN TWO GOLDEN AGES

MARÍA J. PANDO CANTELI The mujer esquiva or elusive woman: From Petrarchan conceptions to dramatic portrayals	15
HELEN WILCOX AND RINA WALTHAUS Gendered authority: Cleopatra in English and Spanish Golden Age drama	32
JOSÉ MANUEL GONZÁLEZ FERNÁNDEZ DE SEVILLA Beyond Shakespeare and Calderón: Female subversion in the plays of Tirso, Webster and Middleton	50

PART II: ACTRESSES AND PLAYS IN PERFORMANCE

MAITE PASCUAL BONIS Women as actresses and theatre managers in early modern Pamplona	69
MARÍA DEL CARMEN ALARCÓN ROMÁN Nuns and actresses: The performance of dramatic works in the convent of the Trinitarias Descalzas of Madrid by Sister Francisca of Santa Teresa (1654-1709)	88

MARION WYNNE-DAVIES
The good Lady Lumley's desire: Iphigeneia
and the Nonsuch banqueting house 111

BARBARA RAVELHOFER
Women on the English courtly stage: Queen Henrietta
Maria's dramatic activities 129

PART III: WOMEN WRITERS OF DRAMA

RINA WALTHAUS
Emerging from the wings: Women writing drama in seventeenth-century Spain 145

AMY R. WILLIAMSEN
From page to stage: Readers, spectators, expectations and interpretations of María de Zayas's La traición
en la amistad 167

MARGUÉRITE CORPORAAL
'To be in one self chest': Women, language and genre
in early modern English theatre 189

ALISON FINDLAY
Theatres for early modern women's drama: From household to playhouse 205

General Bibliography 225

Index 248

Contributors 259