

Contents

Preface.....	V
Abbreviations and Symbols.....	IX
1 Introduction .....	1
1.1 Introduction and organization.....	1
1.2 Theoretical frameworks.....	2
1.3 The source, its limitations and advantages .....	3
2 Prosodic deficiency and cliticization in Otfrid .....	6
2.1 Evidence of primary umlaut in még ih , géb imo and ném iz .....	6
2.2 The prosodic status of még ih .....	7
2.3 Defining the pword within the prosodic hierarchy .....	12
2.4 The minimum pword in OHG and the lexical-function word dichotomy.....	16
2.5 A formal account of még ih and ném iz .....	22
3 Theih , theiz and theist : a case of form fossilization? .....	31
3.1 Theih , theiz , theist and the grammaticalization cline.....	31
3.2 Early Germanic and OHG clause structure.....	36
3.3 Lexically listed or actively derived? The case against a fossilized understanding of theih , theiz , and theist in Otfrid.....	47
3.4 Fossilization versus grammaticalization .....	68
4 Elision and cliticization .....	72
4.1 Pronominal cliticization or metaplasmus and synaloepha ? The cases of wolt er , feristu , and theih (revisited).....	72
4.2 The influence of the poetic meter on the attestation patterns of theih , theiz , and theist .....	76
4.3 Cliticization or metrically-licensed elision? The case of wolt er .....	87
5 Conclusions .....	104
5.1 The current analysis.....	104
5.2 Looking to the manuscript and beyond.....	107
Appendix 1. Chapter two forms .....	113
Appendix 2. Chapter three forms .....	115
a. Book I – cliticization.....	115
b. Book I – no cliticization.....	115
c. Book II – cliticization .....	116
d. Book II – no cliticization .....	117
e. Book III – cliticization .....	117
f. Book III – no cliticization.....	118

g. Book IV – cliticization.....	118
h. Book IV – no cliticization.....	119
i. Book V – cliticization.....	120
j. Book V – no cliticization.....	120
Appendix 3. Chapter four forms .....	122
a. Elided forms.....	122
b. No elision.....	126
c. Dotted forms .....	127
References .....	129