

Contents

The Research Network Macroeconomics and Macroeconomic Policies (FMM) .....	7
--	---

Introduction

Eckhard Hein, Torsten Niechoj and Engelbert Stockhammer .....	17
--	----

I. Whither macroeconomic theory?

Microfoundations?

John E. King .....	33
---------------------------	----

How did macro theory get so far off track, and what can heterodox macroeconomists do to get it back on track?

David Colander .....	55
-----------------------------	----

Towards a post-Keynesian consensus in macroeconomics: Reconciling the Cambridge and Wall Street views

Marc Lavoie .....	75
--------------------------	----

II. New Keynesian economics, the New Consensus and Post-Keynesian critique

Explaining European unemployment with a New Keynesian New Growth model

Ansgar Rannenberg .....	103
--------------------------------	-----

Behavioural Macroeconomics and the New Keynesian model

Jan-Oliver Menz .....	135
------------------------------	-----

New Consensus Macroeconomics and Keynesian critique

Philip Arestis .....	165
-----------------------------	-----

Whither New Consensus Macroeconomics? The role of government and fiscal policy in modern macroeconomics Giuseppe Fontana	187
Fiscal policy on shaky foundations: Post Keynesian and Chartalist insights for New Consensus economists Pavlina Tcherneva	209

III. Macroeconomics, financial instability and financial crisis

Money and finance: The heterodox views of Robert Clower, Axel Leijonhufvud and Hyman Minsky Elisabetta De Antoni	237
Systemic crisis, systemic risk and the financial instability hypothesis Fernando J. Cardim de Carvalho	261
Money manager capitalism and the global financial crisis L. Randall Wray	283

IV. Whither macroeconomic policies?

Diversity of capitalism and macroeconomic policy Bruno Amable	307
Variety of economic judgement and monetary policy-making by committee Sheila Dow, Matthias Klaes and Alberto Montagnoli	331
The continuing muddles of monetary theory: A steadfast refusal to face facts Charles A.E. Goodhart	351
After the bust: The outlook for macroeconomics and macroeconomic policy Thomas I. Palley	371
Editors and authors	393