

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
1 From National to Transnational: A Discipline en route to Europe Máiréad Nic Craith	1
2 From CIAP to SIEF: Visions for a Discipline or Power Struggle? Bjarne Rogan	19
3 Small National Ethnologies and Supranational Empires: The Case of the Habsburg Monarchy Bojan Baskar	65
4 How Large are the Issues for Small Ethnographies? Bulgarian Ethnology Facing the New Europe Galia Valtchinova	81
5 Challenges to the Discipline: Lithuanian Ethnology between Scholarship and Identity Politics Vytis Ciubrinskas	101
6 When is Small Beautiful? The Transformations of Swedish Ethnology Orvar Löfgren	119
7 The Hybridity of Minorities: A Case-Study of Sorb Cultural Research Elka Tschernokoshewa	133
8 Turning the World Upside Down: Towards a European Ethnology in (and of) England Ullrich Kockel	149
9 Ethnology in the North of Ireland Anthony D. Buckley	165
Index	185