

CONTENTS

Preface xi

About the Authors xv

Chapter 1 Corporations and Corporate Governance 1

- Forms of Business Ownership 2
- Separation of Ownership and Control 4
- Can Shareholders Influence Managers? 5
 - Monitors 6
- An Integrated System of Governance 8
- International Monitoring 10
- Summary 10
- Review Questions 11
- Discussion Questions 11
- Exercises 11
- Exercises for Non-U.S. Students 11
- Endnotes 12

Chapter 2 Executive Incentives 13

- Potential Managerial Temptations 14
- Types of Executive Compensation 14
 - Base Salary and Bonus 14
 - Stock Options 15
 - Stock Grants 17
- Does Incentive-Based Compensation Work in General? 17
- Potential "Incentive" Problems with Incentive-Based Compensation 18
 - Problems with Accounting-Based Incentives 18
 - Problems with Stock Option Incentives 18
 - The Debate Over Expensing Executive Options 21
- Other Compensation 22
- Crime and Punishment 23
- International Perspective—CEO Compensation around the World 23
- Summary 24
- Web Info about Executive Compensation 25

Review Questions 25
Discussion Questions 25
Exercises 25
Exercises for Non-U.S. Students 26
Endnotes 26

Chapter 3 Accountants and Auditors 27

Accounting Functions 27
 Accounting for Inside Use 28
 Accounting for Outside Use 28
Problems That May Occur in Accounting 29
Auditing 29
 Internal Auditors 29
 External Auditors 30
 How the Nature of External Auditing Has Evolved Since the Late 1930s 32
Accounting Oversight 33
The Changing Role of Accounting—Managing
Earnings 34
From Manipulation to Fraud 35
Auditors as Consultants 38
International Perspective 38
Summary 39
Web Info about Accounting and Auditing 40
Review Questions 40
Discussion Questions 40
Exercises 40
Exercises for Non-U.S. Students 41
Endnotes 41

Chapter 4 The Board of Directors 42

Overview of Boards 43
 The Board's Legal Duties 43
 Election of Directors 44
 Board Committees 45
 Board Structure Regulations Imposed by Exchanges and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act 45
What Is a "Good" Board? 47
 Independent Boards 48

Small Boards	48
Board Structure in the United States and around the World	49
Good for the Goose, Good for the Gander?	49
Can Good Boards Lead to Better Firm Performance?	50
Potential Problems with Today's Boards	51
International Perspective—Boards in Western Europe	54
Two-Tier Boards	54
Board Regulations on Independence	55
Summary	56
Web Info about Boards of Directors	56
Review Questions	56
Discussion Questions	56
Exercises	57
Exercises for Non-U.S. Students	57
Endnotes	57
Chapter 5 Investment Banks and Securities Analysts	59
Investment Banking Activities	60
Criticisms of Investment Banks	62
IPO Problems	62
Structured Deals	64
Securities Analysts	66
Quality of Analysts' Recommendations	68
Potential Conflicts of Interest	69
Analysts and the Firms They Analyze	69
Analysts working at Investment Banks	70
Summary	74
Web Info about Investment Banks and Analysts	74
Review Questions	74
Discussion Questions	75
Exercises	75
Exercises for Non-U.S. Students	75
Endnotes	76
Chapter 6 Creditors and Credit Rating Agencies	78
Debt as a Disciplinary Mechanism	79
Institutional Lenders as Corporate Monitors	80

Why Didn't Lenders Raise a Red Flag during the Recent Corporate Scandals?	80
Do Creditors Influence Corporate Governance in Bankruptcy?	81
Credit Rating Agencies	82
A Brief Historical Perspective	82
The Ratings	84
Criticisms	86
International Perspective	89
Japan's Main Bank System	89
Creditor Rights around the World	90
Summary	92
Web Info about Credit Rating Agencies	92
Review Questions	92
Discussion Questions	93
Exercises	93
Exercises for Non-U.S. Students	93
Endnotes	93

Chapter 7 Shareholders and Shareholder Activism 95

What is Shareholder Activism?	96
Activism by Individual Shareholders	96
Monitoring by Large Shareholders	97
Institutional Shareholders: An Overview	98
Types of Shareholder Activism	100
Shareholder Proposals	100
Contested Election of Directors (Proxy Fights)	103
Shareholders Lawsuits	104
Does Institutional Shareholder Activism Work?	107
Potential Roadblocks to Effective Shareholder Activism	107
International Perspective	109
Summary	109
Web Info about Shareholder Activism	110
Review Questions	110
Discussion Questions	110
Exercises	110
Exercises for Non-U.S. Students	111
Endnotes	111

Chapter 8 Corporate Takeovers: A Governance Mechanism? 113

Brief Overview of Mergers and Acquisitions	115
The Target Firm	116
The Notion of the Disciplinary Takeover	118
Takeover Defenses	120
Firm-Level Pre-Emptive Takeover Defenses	121
Firm-Level Reactionary Takeover Defenses	121
State-Level Anti Takeover Laws	122
Assessments of Takeover Defenses	123
Are Takeover Defenses Bad for the Governance System?	123
International Perspective	124
Summary	126
Web Info about Mergers and Acquisitions	126
Review Questions	126
Discussion Questions	126
Exercises	126
Exercises for Non-U.S. Students	127
Endnotes	127

Chapter 9 The Securities and Exchange Commission and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act 129

The Securities Acts	130
Summary of the Acts	131
Organization Structure of the Securities and Exchange Commission	131
Need for the Acts and the Securities and Exchange Commission	134
Securities and Exchange Commission Problem Areas	135
Reporting	135
Punishment	135
Securities and Exchange Commission Resources	137
Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002	138
The 2002 Act's Effect on Accounting Oversight	139
Public Company Accounting Oversight Board	139
Auditor Independence	139
Corporate Responsibility	140
Enhanced Financial Disclosures	140

- Analysts Conflicts of Interests 141
- Securities and Exchange Commission Resources and Authority 141
- Corporate and Criminal Fraud, Accountability, and Penalties 141
- Will the Act Be Beneficial? 141
- Other Regulatory Changes 142
 - The New York Stock Exchange 142
 - NASDAQ Stock Market 143
- International Perspective 143
- Summary 145
- WEB Info about the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act 145
- Review Questions 145
- Discussion Questions 146
- Exercises 146
- Exercises for Non-U.S. Students 146
- Endnotes 146

Chapter 10 Moral Hazard, Systemic Risk, and Bailouts 148

- History of Systemic Risk and Bailouts 149
- The Financial Crisis of 2007 to 2009 152
 - Corporate Governance Failures in the Mortgage Industry 154
 - The Overreliance of Banks on AIG and Credit Default Swaps 158
- International Perspective 161
- Summary 162
- WEB Info about Moral Hazard, Systemic Risk, and Bailouts 163
- Review Questions 163
- Discussion Questions 163
- Exercises 163
- Exercises for Non-U.S. Students 164
- Endnotes 164

Chapter 11 Corporate Citizenship 166

- Stakeholder View of the Firm 167
 - Legal Foundations 169
 - Corporate Social Responsibility 169

Governance and Stakeholder Theory	172
Criticisms	172
International Perspective	175
Summary	177
Web Info about Corporate Citizenship	178
Review Questions	178
Discussion Questions	178
Exercises	178
Exercises for Non-U.S. Students	178
Endnotes	179

Index	181
--------------	-----