

CONTENTS

Lists of Tables and Figures	11
Acknowledgements	13
Introduction	15
On Using This Book	19

I. THE FIRST SIX WEEKS: SETTLING INTO LIFE

1 Opening the Parcel	23
Birthweight	26
Circumcision	30
Normal Peculiarities	32
2 Feeding	43
Method	43
Technique	47
Quantity	50
Frequency and Timing	56
3 Other Physical Fundamentals	62
Sleep	62
Elimination	64
Temperature Control	69
Crying	72
4 Starting to be a Person	82
Physical Contact	82
Seeing	84
Hearing	85
Language	85
Smiling	86
Postures	88
Using His Hands	90
5 Difficulties in Getting Settled	91
Miserable Babies	92
Jumpy Babies	93
Sleepy Babies	94

II. FROM SIX WEEKS TO THREE MONTHS: MAKING PATTERNS

6 Fundamental Physical Patterns	99
Feeding	100
Sleeping	104
Elimination	106
Crying and Colic	108
7 Beginning to Manage His Body	114
Posture and Head Control	114
Physical and Manual Play	117
8 Making Sense of What He Sees	120
9 Relating Hand to Eye	126
10 Hearing and Making Sounds	133
Three Months' Summary	139

III. FROM THREE TO SIX MONTHS: DISCOVERING PEOPLE

11 Singling Out Mother	149
12 Stimulation and Attention	161
13 Feeding and Growing	172
14 Physical Fundamentals Again	202
Eating and Sleeping Patterns	202
Teething	206
Crying	207
15 Getting Control of His Body	211
16 Using Hand and Eye Together	219
17 Listening and Babbling	229
18 Boredom and the Need for Play	234
Six Months' Summary	242

IV. FROM SIX TO TWELVE MONTHS: BROADENING HIS WORLD

19 The Infant within the Family	251
20 More Physical Fundamentals	266
Feeding	267
Sleep	282
Toilet 'Training'	289

21	Becoming a Biped	296
22	Becoming a Tool-User	308
23	Becoming a Talker	317
	One-Year Summary	331
V. THE SECOND YEAR: FROM BABY TO TODDLER
24	Being a Toddler	341
25	Feeding in the Second Year	356
	Nutritional Needs	358
	The Mythical 'Problem Eater'	366
	Summing Up	379
26	Sleep and Its Problems	388
27	Toilet Training	398
28	Mobility	407
29	Learning to Think	417
30	Language	433
31	Fears and Phobias; Tears and Tantrums	448
	Bibliography	463
	Index of Authors	473
	Index	475