

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Abbreviations ix

Maps x

Introduction i

Jeff Rider & Alan V. Murray

PART ONE. GALBERT OF BRUGES AT WORK

1. "Wonder with Fresh Wonder": Galbert the Writer and the Genesis of the De multro 13

Jeff Rider

PART TWO. GALBERT OF BRUGES AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF INSTITUTIONS

2. Galbert of Bruges and "Law Is Politics" 39

R. C. Van Caenegem

3. Not European Feudalism, but Flemish Feudalism:
A New Reading of Galbert of Bruges's Data on Feudalism
in the Context of Early Twelfth-Century Flanders 56

Dirk Heirbaut

4. Galbert of Bruges and the Urban
Experience of Siege 89

Steven Isaac

PART THREE. GALBERT OF BRUGES AND THE POLITICS OF GENDER

5. Galbert's Hidden Women: Social Presence and Narrative Concealment 109

Nancy F. Partner

6. The Language of Misogyny in Galbert of Bruges's Account of the Murder of Charles the Good 126

Martina Häcker

7. The Tears of Fromold: The Murder of Charles the Good,
Homoeroticism, and the Ruin of the Erembalds 145

Bert Demyttenaere

PART FOUR. THE MEANINGS OF HISTORY

8. The Devil in Flanders: Galbert of Bruges and the Eschatology of Political Crisis 183

Alan V. Murray

9. Death from a Trivial Cause: Events and Their Meanings in Galbert of Bruges's Chronicle 200

Robert M. Stein

10. History as Fabliau and Fabliau as History: The Murder of Charles the Good and Du provost a l'aumuche 215

Lisa H. Cooper & Mary Agnes Edsall

- II. Chronicles of Revolt: Galbert of Bruges's De multro
and Jean Froissart's Chronique de Flandre 240

Godfried Croenen

Selected Bibliography 261

Contributors 279

Index 283