

Contents

List of Contributors	xi
-----------------------------	----

Introduction: Inhibited Consensual Leadership within an Interdependent Confederal Europe	1
Jack Hayward

PART I. WHO LED EUROPE?

1. Strategic Innovation by Insider Influence: Monnet to Delors	15
Jack Hayward
2. Delegation and Commission Leadership in Economic and Monetary Union	28
David Howarth
3. Guiding the Digital Revolution: Is European Technology Policy Misguided?	47
Xiudian Dai
4. Environmental Policy: EU Actors, Leader and Laggard States	66
Rüdiger K. W. Wurzel
5. Did France and Germany Lead Europe? A Retrospect	89
William E. Paterson

PART II. WHY IS EUROPE CURRENTLY LEADERLESS?

6. Political Leadership in the European Commission: The Santer and Prodi Commissions, 1995–2005	113
Michelle Cini
7. Security Policy and the Logic of Leaderlessness	131
Anand Menon
8. Franco-German Relations: From Active to Reactive Cooperation	147
Alistair Cole

9. A Bid Too Far? New Labour and UK Leadership of the European Union under Blair Hussein Kassim	167
10. Leaderless Enlargement? The Difficult Reform of the New Pan-European Political System José M. Magone	188
PART III. WHERE CAN POLITICAL LEADERSHIP COME FROM?
11. Legal Leadership in the European Union John Bell	211
12. Commission Leadership and the Internet: Dragging the Net through Choppy Waters Jamal Shahin	227
13. The European Parliament: Leadership and 'Followership' David Judge and David Earnshaw	245
14. Beyond the Rotating Presidency Adriaan Schout	269
15. Collective Leadership in Leaderless Europe: A Sceptical View Dionyssi G. Dimitrakopoulos	288
Epilogue: The Elusive European Prospect Jack Hayward	305
Index	313