

Contents

Abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
Part I. The Status of Slaves	25
1. The Denationalization of Slaves	27
2. The Slave as Chattel and Human Being	55
3. Women, Slaves, and Minors	69
4. Hierarchical Equations and Differentiations	83
5. Between Slavery and Freedom	105
Summary	116
Part II. Slaves and the Family	121
6. Slaves within the Household	123
7. Master–Slave Relationships	149
8. Prostitutes and Concubines	179
9. Power Relationships	202
Summary	212
Part III. Slaves and the Economy	217
10. The Sources of Slaves	221
11. The Acquisition and Sale of Slaves	247
12. Slaves as Intermediaries in Business Transactions	275
13. The Location of Slaves in Ancient Jewish Society	285
14. The Manumission of Slaves	304
Summary	318

Part IV. The Symbolic Significance of Slavery	323
15. Slavery as Metaphor	327
16. Slave Parables	346
17. Slavery and the Exodus Experience	363
Summary	377
Conclusions	380
Bibliography	393
Index of References	409
Index of Subjects	429