

Contents

Abbreviations

1	The challenge	3
2	South Africa in the face of climate change	5
3	South Africa's contribution to climate change	7
4	The electricity sector	9
4.1	Structure of the South African electricity sector	9
4.2	Barriers to renewable energy	11
5	Promoting private-sector involvement in renewable energy	14
5.1	National measures	15
5.1.1	Renewable energy support schemes worldwide: an overview	15
5.1.2	The South African status quo	16
5.2	Further gaps and possible solutions	21
5.2.1	Creating public awareness and acceptance	23
5.2.2	Making use of international mechanisms	23
6	Conclusions	29
	Bibliography	31

Boxes

Box 1:	Adverse incentives created by CDM rules – the case of HFC-23	24
--------	--	----

Figures

Figure 1:	Global energy-related emissions 1980–2030	4
Figure 2:	Climate change impacts in North, East, South, West and Central Africa	6
Figure 3:	Change in African agricultural yields by 2050	7
Figure 4:	Uneven distribution of household expenditures – Lorenz curve for South Africa, 1995 and 2005	8
Figure 5:	South African mitigation options 2003–2050, Long-Term Mitigation Scenario	9
Figure 6:	Energy mix in South Africa	10
Figure 7:	Renewable energy projects, lending cycle	12
Figure 8:	Annual Solar Radiation South Africa	13
Figure 9:	Global investments in renewable energy (2004–2008)	15
Figure 10:	Geographical distribution of CDM projects	19

Tables

Table 1:	Tariff schedule 2008–2013 in ZAR c/kWh (EUR c/kWh)	17
Table 2:	Annual REFIT depression	18
Table 3:	Revised REFIT rates	18
Table 4:	External costs of electricity generation from coal (1999 Rand c/kWh)	20