

Contents

I	Writing
1	Paul: Invented Spelling	3
2	Other Young Spellers and Writers	34
3	Paul: Toward Conventional Spelling	40
4	Paul: Sustained and More Mature Writing	74
5	Summary	96
6	Educational Implications	108
II	Reading
7	Paul: Working on Reading	119
8	Other Young Readers	132
9	Paul: Enjoying Reading	136
10	Paul: Working on Vocabulary (7:2-8:3)	148
11	Paul: Diversified Reading (7:7-9:11)	154
12	Summary of Paul's Reading Development	167
13	Educational Implications for Reading	170
III	Writing and Reading
14	Writing and Reading Converge: Paul, Ten Years Old	117
15	Relationships between Writing and Reading in Paul's Development	189

16	Learning to Write and Read as Forms of Development	200
	References	215
	Index	219

Illustrations

1. "Report card on sports" (5:8)	32
2. Shelves of containers (6:7)	54
3. "This is Pollution" (6:3)	60
4. "Airplane lifting a Giant's arm" (6:8)	61
5. "Train Rules" (7:4)	67
6. Page from "A Magic Carpet or Two" (8:4)	76
7. "Announcement" (9:4)	87
8. Page from Curious George Gets a Medal	121
9. Revision of "The Death of Starbuck" (10:4) as it might have looked had Paul revised on his original draft	183