Contents

Acknowledgments xi
Foreword—Peter K. Smith xiii

Chapter 1 APPLIED CHILD STUDY: AN INTRODUCTION 1

Introduction to the Introduction 1
What Is Child Study? 3
Functions of Child Study 4
Ethical Considerations in Child Study 6

Chapter 2 WHAT IS DEVELOPMENTAL? 9

Introduction 9
"Outmoded" Concepts in Development 9
Current Concepts of Development 11
Developmental Child Study 14

Chapter 3 BEHAVIOR IN CONTEXT 17

Introduction 17
The Role of Context in the Behavioral Sciences: A Brief History 19
Kurt Lewin: Behavior in Context 22
Ecological Observation 28
Bronfenbrenner: The Ecology of Human Development 31
Conclusions 35

Chapter 4 THE SCHOOL AS CONTEXT 37

Introduction 37
Roots of Educational Practice: Philosophical and Psychological Origins of School Practices 38
Planned-Variation: Follow-Through Models 44
Conclusions 52

Chapter 5 TESTS 54

Introduction 54
Types of Tests 57

Conditions for Testing 68
Technical and Practical Considerations in Testing 71
Conclusions 75

Chapter 6 EXPERIMENTAL METHODS 78

Introduction: The Experimental Approach 78
Laboratory Experiments 83
Field Experiments 84
The Experimental Approach Evaluated: Advantages and Disadvantages 94
The Experimental Report 95
Conclusions 96

Chapter 7 OBSERVATIONAL METHODS 99

Introduction 99
Entering the Observational Field 100
Observer Effects 101
Measures of Behavior 103
Recording and Sampling Strategies 105
Recording Media 109
Reliability and Validity 111

Chapter 8 ETHNOGRAPHIC AND ETHOLOGICAL MODES OF INQUIRY . 114

Introduction 115
Ethnography 115
Ethology 118
Conclusions 123

Chapter 9 LEARNING AND COGNITION 126

Introduction 126
Behaviorist-Learning Theory 128
Piagetian Theory 134
Vygotskian Theory 142
Social Learning Theory 148
Conclusion 150

Chapter 10 CHILDREN'S SOCIAL COMPETENCE 154

Introduction 154
Social Competence 155
Social Competence in the Family 161
Social Competence and Peers 166
The Effects of Toys 168
The Effects of the Presence of Others 168
Friendship and Popularity 169
Conclusion 177

Chapter 11 STUDYING CHILDREN'S LANGUAGE 182

Introduction 182
What Is Language? 183
Theories of Language 186
Language in Context 189
Second-Language Learning 197
Analyzing Language in Social Contexts 199
Language in School 203
Conclusion 211

Chapter 12 CHILDREN'S PLAY 213

Play Defined 213
The Role of Play in Applied Settings 216
Categorizing Play 217
Analyzing Aspects of Children's Symbolic Play 226
Categorizing Aspects of Children's Symbolic Play 226
Rough-and-Tumble Play 228
Conclusion 234

Author Index 238
Subject Index 241