

Contents

Preface	vii
1 Being Gifted in the Culture of Childhood	1
The Gifted Child as Social Outcast	1
The Pervasive Benign Light of Intelligence	3
Intelligence, Leadership, and Role Differentiation in Small Groups	7
Intelligence, Social Competence, and the Prediction of Adult Mental Health	9
Motivation and Creativity in Peer Relations Perspective	9
Role of the Peer Group	13
Age Differences in the Social Adjustment of the Gifted	14
Organization of this Book	15
2 Peer Acceptance of Gifted Children: The Pedestal Revisited	20
The Challenge of Studying Peer Relations	20
The Challenge of Studying the Gifted	26
A Review of the Empirical Literature	28
What Differentiates Popular and Unpopular Gifted Children?	34
Conclusion	35
3 Early Peer Relations of the Eminent: A Pilot Exploration	39
WITH HELEN BIENERT
Method	41
Quantitative Analysis	53
Conclusions	54
4 The Portrayal of Brightness in Children's Literature	61
WITH KEVIN MURPHY
Development of Our Coding Manual	62
Sampling Procedure	64

Reliability of Ratings	64
Quantitative Results: Portrayal of "Bright" Characters	64
Qualitative Interpretation	66
Conclusion	69
5 The Social Self-Concepts of Gifted Children: Delusions of Ungrandeur?	71
One Self-Concept of Many?	71
The Social Origin of Self-Concept	72
Review of Self-Concept Studies	74
Creativity and Self-Concept	80
Conclusion	81
6 The Minority in Person: Gifted Children in Therapy	85
David, Age 14	85
Ellen, Age 15	87
Jeffrey, Age 8	88
Common Elements	89
Counseling the Socially Maladjusted Gifted Child	90
7 School Life and the Social Development of the Gifted	93
Evaluating the Impact of School Programming	95
Research on the Impact of Schools	96
Enhancing the Impact of Special Programs	100
Author Index	105
Subject Index	111