

Contents

	Preface	vii
1	In Search of the Self and Other	1
	Memories and Imagination	1
	Reflexivity and Anthropology: the Self and Others	5
	In Search of the Self: Anthropology at Home	10
	Being a Child: 1954–1965	14
	Looking at Children: 1977–1983	16
	Having Children: 1982–1993	18
	In Search of the Self and Others: 1988–1992	19
	Identity, Personhood and the Researcher	23
	Identity and Personhood during Childhood	27
	Personifying Children	31
2	Accounting for Children	35
	Narrating Difference	35
	Reflexivity and Account-giving	39
	Constructions of Normal and Different Childhoods	42
	The Differently Normal Child	44
	Making the Transition	48
	A Normally Different Childhood	49
	The Constructing of Children's Childhoods	58
3	Accounts of Childhood	66
	Reflexivity and Reflections	66
	Making Representations	68
	The Social Construction of Childhood	71
	Accounting for Children's Socialisation	75
	Accounting for Culture	78
	The Medicalised Child	82
	Social Anthropology and Children	84
	The Culture of Childhood	88
	Identity and Personhood in Children's Culture	91
4	Embodied Childhood	101
	The Signifying Body	101
	Body Stereotypes and Social Identities	106

	The Changing Body	110
	Fatties and Thinnies	118
	The Gendered Body	121
	The Body in Parts	124
	The Temporality of Different Identities	127
	Appearances are Deceiving	130
5	Social Children	134
	Stories of Sociality	134
	Setting the Limits to Sociality	138
	Conformity: a Sense of Self and Belonging	140
	Individuality: a Sense of Self and Personhood	151
	Equality through Competition: Being and Belonging	161
6	Playing At and Learning To	167
	Play and Personhood	167
	Interpreting Children's Play	169
	Playing the Game	172
	Powerful Players and Power Games	176
	Boys and Girls Come Out to Play	184
	Boys will be Boys and Girls will be Women	191
	Genders at Risk	193
7	Friends and Acquaintances	201
	Defining Friendship	201
	Words and Meanings	205
	Having and Being Friends	208
	Naming Names: the Performance of Friendship	216
	Gendered Friends: the Experience of Friendship	224
	Persons Identified	234
	Bibliography	235
	Index	244