

Contents

Prologue	1
------------------------	----------

PART ONE THE BORDERLINE ADOLESCENT

1. The Need for Treatment,	5
2. A Developmental Theory: A Separation-Individuation, Failure,	18
3. The Clinical Picture,	37
4. Feelings of Abandonment: The Six Horsemen of the Apocalypse,	58
5. The Parents: An Overview,	74
6. The Parents: The Tie That Binds—Clinging,	91

PART TWO THE THERAPEUTIC PROCESS: INPATIENT

7. Theory of the Process,	105
8. Phase I: Testing,	113
9. Phase II: Working Through,	125
10. Casework Treatment of the Parents,	141
11. Phase II: Joint Interviews,	155
12. Phase III: Separation,	169
13. Results: Continuity and Change,	176

PART THREE THE THERAPEUTIC PROCESS: OUTPATIENT

14. Nancy: Clinical History, Hospital Treatment, and First Out- patient Crisis,	187
15. Nancy: Second Crisis To Termination,	203
16. Bill, Helen, and Grace: Follow-up Summaries,	217

PART FOUR OTHER THERAPEUTIC FACTORS

17. Differential Diagnosis, Indications, and Contraindications; Countertransference,	227
18. Outpatient Treatment Alone,	237
19. The Psychiatric Dilemma of Adolescence Revisited,	250
Epilogue	257
Appendix Initial and Follow-up Psychological Testing: Nancy and Bill	259
Bibliography	273
Index	281