

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii

1 Introduction 5

Prologue Adolescent–Parent Relationships	6
---	---

What Do Parents, Educators, and Scientists Want to Know about Adolescence?	6
---	---

Historical Perspective	9
-------------------------------	---

Plato	Rousseau
Aristotle	G. Stanley Hall

The Middle Ages

Adolescence in America Compared with Adolescence in Other Cultures	14
---	----

Adolescence in America	16
-------------------------------	----

The Early Republic, 1790–1840

Approaching the Age of Adolescence, 1840–1900

The Period of Adolescence, 1900 to the Present

Contemporary Social and Educational Issues in Adolescence	23
--	----

Identity Development

Moral Education

Drug Use and Abuse

Adolescence: Physical, Cognitive, and Social Development	28
---	----

The Adolescent as an Integrated Human Being	32
--	----

Summary	32
----------------	----

Box 1–1 G. Stanley Hall's Adolescence, 1904 12

Box 1–2 Stereotyping Youth 22

2 Theories and Points of View 35

Prologue Psychological Perspectives Reflected in Adolescent Comments and Conversations	36
---	----

Why Theories?	39
----------------------	----

The Psychoanalytic Perspective	40
---------------------------------------	----

Sigmund Freud

Erik Erikson

The Cognitive-Developmental Perspective	54
--	----

Jean Piaget

Lawrence Kohlberg

The Social-Learning Perspective 62

The Stimulus-Response Theory of B. F. Skinner

Cognitive Social-Learning Theory

The Humanistic Perspective 74

Carl Rogers

Abraham Maslow

An Eclectic View of Adolescence 81

Summary 84

Box 2-1 The Adolescent Years of Sigmund Freud 46

Box 2-2 The Youth of Erik Erikson 48

Box 2-3 The Youth of Jean Piaget 55

Box 2-4 The Adolescence of B. F. Skinner 64

Box 2-5 A Behavioral Contract for Billy 68

Box 2-6 Walter Mischel's Cognitive Social-Learning Theory 72

Box 2-7 Haim Ginott's Between Parent and Teenager 76

Box 2-8 The Youth of Carl Rogers 77

Box 2-9 Everett Shostrum's Man, the Manipulator 82

3 Physical Development and Biological Influences 93

Prologue Can Puberty Come Any Earlier? 94

General Features of Physical Growth and Development during Adolescence 96

Height and Weight

Obesity and Malnutrition in Adolescence

The Development of Sexual Characteristics during Adolescence 102

Primary Sexual Characteristics

Secondary Sexual Characteristics

Sex Hormones

Extended Pubertal Delay

Psychological Changes that Accompany Physical Development 110

Early versus Late Maturation

Behavior Genetics 113

The Interaction of Heredity and Environment

Strategies for Determining Hereditary Influence

Genetic Influences on Adolescent Development

Summary 129

Box 3-1 Early versus Late Maturation and Ethnic Differences in Physical Development 100

Box 3-2 Physical Activity versus Nutritional Intake in Adolescent Girls 103

Box 3-3 Menstruation, Biological Cycles, and Behavior 108

Box 3-4 Extended Pubertal Delay in Boys 111

Box 3-5 Temperament from Infancy through Adolescence 124

Box 3-6 Schizophrenia and Biochemistry 128

4 Cognitive Development, Intelligence, and Creativity 135

Prologue Piaget and Adolescent Education 136

The Nature of Cognitive Development 139

Different Theories of Cognitive Development

Piaget's View of Adolescent Cognitive Development

Thought beyond Adolescence

Social Cognition during Adolescence

Intelligence 158

Definition and Measurement of Intelligence

Culture-Free and Culture-Fair Intelligence Tests

A Comparison of Piagetian and Psychometric Approaches to Intelligence

IQ Tests and Career Success

Creativity 174

Definition and Measurement of Creativity

Wallach and Kogan's Work on Creativity

Developmental Changes in Creativity

Creativity in the Classroom

Summary 180

Box 4-1 The Branch Model of Adolescent Cognitive Development 150

Box 4-2 Early and Late Formal Operations 154

Box 4-3 Clinical Use of the WISC and WAIS 164

Box 4-4 The Chitling Intelligence Test 169

Box 4-5 Guilford's Components of Divergent (Creative) Thinking 177

5 The Family 191

Prologue The Family and Adolescent Autonomy 192

The Changing Family 192

Changes in Family Structure

Father Absence and Divorce

The Effects of Paternal Custody

Working Mothers

The Maturing Adolescent and Maturing Parents

Parent-Adolescent Relationships 210

Reciprocal Socialization

The Nature of Adolescent Autonomy

Socialization Techniques

Siblings 229

Summary 234

Box 5-1 The Seasons of a Man's Life and Passages: The Implications of Middle-Adulthood Changes for Adolescent Development 206

Box 5-2 Runaways—Youth Who Flee 217

Box 5-3 Parent Effectiveness-Training and Youth Effectiveness Training 222

Box 5-4 Diffusion, Selective Diffusion, and Sadoomasochistic Arabesque 225

Box 5-5 Family Therapy with Adolescents 230

6 Peers 239

Prologue A Peer-Oriented Clinic for Adolescents with Problems 240

Functions of the Peer Group 242

Peer versus Adult-Parent Influences 244

Peer Relations and Social Behavior 246

Peer Conformity and Pressure

Peer Modeling, Tutoring, and Reinforcement

Peer Coaching and Assertiveness Training

Popularity

Friendship Patterns

Adolescent Groups 258

How are Adolescent Groups Formed?

Children's Groups versus Adolescent Groups

Cultural Variations in Adolescent Groups

Dating 267

The Functions of Dating

Age Trends in Dating and Frequency of Dating

Male and Female Dating Strategies

What Attracts Adolescents to Each Other?

Adolescent Marriage 272

Summary 276

Box 6-1 Peers and the Educational System 246

Box 6-2 Adolescents as Peer Counselors: Communication Styles 251

Box 6-3 Assertiveness Training Programs for Adolescents 254

Box 6-4 Group Activities of Adolescent Boys 264

Box 6-5 Intervention Strategies for Adolescents Who Have Difficulty in Dating 270

Box 6-6 Moral Reasoning about Abortion 275

7 Schools 283

Prologue Adolescents, Schools, and Culture 284

The Nature of the Adolescent's Schooling 286

Kinds of Secondary Education

Curriculum

Organization of Secondary Schools

School and Class Size

Classroom Structure and Climate

ATI: Aptitude \times Treatment Interaction

Teacher-Adolescent Relations 300

Teaching Styles

Personality Traits of Teachers

Teacher Behavior toward Boys and Girls

Patterns of Social Interaction in Schools 306

Social Class and Schools 309

Educational Aspirations

Teachers' Attitudes

School Textbooks

School Dropouts 312

Special Education for Adolescents 313

Issues in Special Education

Educational Intervention Programs for Special Education Adolescents

Summary 320

Box 7-1 Erikson's Criteria for a Good Teacher 302

Box 7-2 Teachers, Schools, and the Adolescent's Development of Autonomy 304

Box 7-3 The Philadelphia Program: Keeping Adolescents from Dropping Out of School 314

8 The Cultural Milieu, Social Class, and Cross-

Cultural Comparisons 327

Prologue Adolescence in China 328

The Cultural Milieu 330

The Culture of the Adolescent

The Cultural Process

Bronfenbrenner's Ecological Analysis of Culture

Television and the Media 340

The Functions of Television

Adolescent Exposure to Television

Television as a Socializing Agent

Television's Influence on Social Attitudes and Behavior

Radio, Records, Books, and Other Media

Social Class 349

Categorization and Measurement

The Subculture of the Poor

Social Class and Self-Esteem

Social Class and Autonomy

Some Cautions about Social Class

Cross-Cultural Comparisons 353

Achievement Orientation

Morality

Sexual Behavior

Summary 359

Box 8-1 Margaret Mead's Perception of the American Culture 332

Box 8-2 Components of Adolescent Culture in the United States 334

Box 8-3 How Sociologists Look at Culture 341

Box 8-4 Television and the Social Behavior of Youth 342

Box 8-5 The Development of Cultural and Racial Identity 356

9 The Self, Self-Evaluation, and Identity 369

Prologue Erik Erikson's Analysis of the Youths of Tom Sawyer, Adolf Hitler, Martin Luther, and Mahatma Gandhi 370

The Self and Self-Evaluation 373

Theories of the Self and Self-Evaluation

Identity 383

Personality and Role Experimentation

Marcia's View on the Four Identity Statuses

Sex Differences in Identity Development

The Relation of Identity to Intimacy

Sociocultural Influences on Identity

Summary 399

Box 9-1 Self-Theory, Piaget, and Adolescence 375

Box 9-2 Self-Esteem and Parental Attitudes 377

Box 9-3 The Attributions of the Adolescent 384

Box 9-4 Measuring and Conceptualizing the Identity

Construct 392

Box 9-5 Erikson's Ideas about Adolescent Identity Development

Applied to Educational Curricula 398

10 Sex Role Development, Sexual Behavior, and Sexual Attitudes 405

Prologue An Expert Discusses Sex Change 406

Sex Roles 410

Androgyny

Biological Forces

Environmental Influences

Sex Differences and Stereotypes 423

How Stereotypes Operate

Actual Sex Differences

Myths about the Sexes

Sexual Behavior and Attitudes 428

Contemporary Sexual Attitudes and Behavior in Adolescence

Cultural Influences

Sex Education 440

Sex Education at Different Stages of Development

Matching Sex Education Curricula to the Adolescent's Cognitive Level

The Sex Education Teacher

Summary 444

Box 10-1 Androgyny, Moral Development, and Ego Development 413

Box 10-2 "Anatomy is Destiny": The Inner Space of Adolescent Females 414

Box 10-3 Knowing the Sexes 424

Box 10-4 Stability of Sex-Typed Behaviors 427

Box 10-5 Adolescent Exposure to Sex on Television 440

11 Moral Development and Values 451

Prologue Kohlberg's Moral Dilemmas and the Actual Moral Dilemmas of Adolescents 452

Kohlberg's Theory of Moral Development 454

The Theory

Evaluation of Kohlberg's Theory

Social-Learning Theory 464

Resistance to Temptation and Cheating

Some Conclusions about the Social-Learning View of Morality

Psychoanalytic Theory 466

Holistic Theory 468

Cultural Relativity Theory 471

Altruism 475

Hoffman's View on the Development of Altruism

Moral Education 478Religious Values 482

The Development of Religious Concepts

Summary 485*Box 11-1 Examples of Kohlberg's Six Stages of Moral Development 458Box 11-2 Moral Perspective, Public Policy, and Political Choice 461Box 11-3 The Content of Moral Education: In Defense of the "Bag of Virtues" 479Box 11-4 The Just Community 48012 Achievement and Careers 491*Prologue Hurried Adolescents 492*Achievement 494

Achievement Motivation and Behavior

Locus of Control

Social Class Influences on Achievement

Achievement Orientation in Females

Underachieving Adolescents

Careers 508

Contemporary Theories of Vocational Choice 513

Exploration, Planning, and Decision Making 517

Sociocultural Influences

Vocations

Summary 537*Box 12-1 Anxiety and Achievement Behavior 498Box 12-2 Coping with Anxiety in Achievement Situations 501Box 12-3 Measuring Locus of Control 503Box 12-4 Ten Reasons Not to Get a Job 518Box 12-5 Women, Discrimination, Work Roles, and Counseling 52913 Problems and Disturbances in*Adolescence 545*Prologue Models of Abnormality in Adolescence 546*Drugs and Alcohol 548

Marijuana

Heroin, Cocaine, LSD, and Other Drugs

Alcohol

Juvenile Delinquency 566

The Nature of Delinquency

Types of Delinquency

Helping the Delinquent

Schizophrenia 573Anxiety 575*Depression 579*Suicide 581

Behavior Disorders and School Summary 583

Box 13-1 Marijuana and Health	554
Box 13-2 Treatment of Drug Abuse in Adolescence		562
Box 13-3 The Problem Situations and Social Skills of Delinquents	572
Box 13-4 The "Invulnerables"	576
Box 13-5 Acute Anxiety	578
Box 13-6 Helping Adolescents Who Have Behavior Problems	586

Appendix	595
Glossary	611
Visual Credits	623
Name Index	625
Subject Index	631	