

Contents

List of Contributors ix

Preface xi

1. Adolescence: Expanding Social Worlds 1

Sandy Jackson and Hector Rodriguez-Tomé

The social worlds of adolescence 1

Social worlds considered: Plan of the book 5

Additional social worlds 11

2. Social Behaviour in Adolescence: The Analysis of Social Interaction Sequences 15

Sandy Jackson

Social interactions in adolescence: Four scenarios 16

Research approaches to social development
in adolescence 19

A social interaction sequence 21

Elaboration of the model 23

Relationship with peers—same sex 33

Relationships with peers—opposite sex 38
Social interaction sequences: A research perspective 42
Note 45

3. Assessing Parent-adolescent Relationships: A Review of Current Research Issues and Methods 47

Terry Honess and Margaret Robinson

Selective review of representative research work 48
General review and discussion of findings 56
Framework for describing different research methods 60
Conclusion 66

4. Variation in Maturational Timing and Adjustment in Adolescence 67

Rainer K. Silbereisen and Bärbel Kracke

Assessment of maturational variables 69
Consequences of variation in maturational timing 76
Antecedents of variation in maturational timing 88
Outlook 92

5. Dating and Interpersonal Relationships in Adolescence 95

Bruna Zani

Changes in the affectional world of adolescents 97
The meaning of the dating/love relationship
in adolescence 106
Identity and intimacy 112
Conclusions 116

6. Adolescents' Relationships with Grandparents:
Characteristics and Developmental Transformations 121

Maria Tyszkowa

Aim and assumptions 124

- Subjects and methods 126
 Research results 128
 Perception of grandparents:
   Developmental transformations 137
 Conclusions and discussion 140
- 7. Developmental Tasks and Adolescents' Relationships with their Peers and their Family 145
- Erich Kirchler, Augusto Palmonari and Maria Luisa Pombeni*
 Peer-groups as a social reference point 147
 Type of group and developmental tasks 150
 Identification with the peer-group and importance of developmental tasks 152
 Coping with developmental tasks 154
 Identification with the peer-group and the family 158
 Conclusions 164
 Note 167
- 8. Stress, Coping and Relationships in Adolescence 169
- Inge Seiffge-Krenke and Shmuel Shulman*
 The relationship between stress and coping 170
 Coping with different stressors 172
 Coping with everyday problems 178
 Parents as a source of support and stress 184
 Significant others as models for coping 190
 Conclusions 193
- 9. Loneliness, Attitude Towards Aloneness, and Solitude: Age Differences and Developmental Significance During Adolescence 197
- Alfons Marcoen and Luc Goossens*
 Loneliness in adolescence: A theoretical model 197
 A developmental framework for adolescent loneliness 203
 Measuring loneliness: The development of a multidimensional instrument 206
 Developmental findings 212

Developmental framework	216
Retrospects and prospects	222
Acknowledgements	225
Appendix	226

10. The Young Person's Relationship to the Institutional Order 229

Nick Emler

Institutions in the social worlds of adolescents	231
Accepting versus rejecting the institutional regulation of conduct	233
Alternative strategies for managing social relations	239
Conclusions	247

11. Adolescence in a Changing World 251

John Coleman

The legacies of theory	252
Historical change	256
The present volume	259
Theories of adolescence	263

References 269

Author Index 299

Subject Index 309