

Contents

Preface	Religion and the Future of Europe Cardinal Josip Bozanić Vice-President of the European Bishops' Conference (CCEE)	7
RaLP	The RaLP-project: Religion and Life Perspectives	10
Part I	Research Context
1	Understanding Religion and the Religiosity of European Youth William K Kay and Hans-Georg Ziebertz	14
2	Analytic Tools and Methods Hans-Georg Ziebertz and William K Kay	33
Part II	National Findings
3	Germany: Belief in the Idea of a higher Reality Hans-Georg Ziebertz	58
4	England and Wales: Open Theism and Materialism William K Kay	81
5	Poland: Religious Individualisation among Youth Wit Pasierbek, Ulrich Riegel, Hans-Georg Ziebertz	104
6	The Netherlands: A peculiar religious Landscape Leo van der Tuin	117
7	Sweden: Religious Belonging and Life Rites without confession and regular practice Per Pettersson	139
8	Finland: Individualistic Religiosity within Tradition Eila Helander	159

9	Ireland: Growing up Catholic? Christopher Alan Lewis, Sharon Mary Cruise, Michael Fearn, Conor McGuckin	174
10	Croatia: Religious and pragmatic Đuro Zalar, Ivan Šaško and Gordan Črpić	192
11	Israel: Traditional Islands within a Modern Ocean Zehavit Gross	215
12	Turkey: High Islamic Faith in a secular State Recep Kaymakcan	230
Part III	Comparative Perspectives
13	Religiosity of Youth in Europe – a comparative Analysis Hans-Georg Ziebertz and William K Kay	246
Part IV	Tables
	Germany	267
	England and Wales	274
	Poland	282
	The Netherlands	288
	Sweden	299
	Finland	306
	Ireland	315
	Croatia	322
	Israel	329
	Turkey	336
	Comparative Data	341
	References	357
	Index	366
	Authors	370
	Acknowledgements	372