

CONTENTS

---

PROLOGUE • Construction and Development 1

PART ONE EVOLUTIONARY TRUCES

ONE • The Unrecognized Genius of Jean Piaget 25

TWO • The Evolution of Moral Meaning-Making 46

THREE • The Constitutions of the Self 73

PART TWO THE NATURAL EMERGENCIES OF THE SELF

FOUR • The Growth and Loss of the Incorporative Self 113

FIVE • The Growth and Loss of the Impulsive Self 133

SIX • The Growth and Loss of the Imperial Self 161

SEVEN • The Growth and Loss of the Interpersonal Self 184

EIGHT • The Growth and Loss of the Institutional Self 221

NINE • Natural Therapy 255

REFERENCES 299

INDEX 309

FIGURES

1. A figure to figure 9
2. Two views of Figure 1 10
3. "I can't go to Jimmy's house" 49
4. A helix of evolutionary truces 109
5. "Christopher has never been treated unkindly" 152
6. Complementarity of adaptation, ego, and truth 294

TABLES

1. Piaget's eras and stages of physical-cognitive development 34
2. Subject-object balancing in Piaget's stages of cognitive development 40
3. Kohlberg's moral stages 52
4. Common meaning-evolution in the physical and sociomoral domains 54
5. Subject-object balancing in Kohlberg's stages of moral development 71
6. Balances of self and other as the common ground of several developmental theories 86
7. Forms and functions of embeddedness cultures 118
8. The impulsive to imperial transformation 134
9. The imperial to interpersonal transformation 164
10. The interpersonal to institutional transformation 190
11. The institutional to interindividual transformation 226
12. Developmental organizations of depression 270