

Contents

Introduction by Adam Hochschild	vii
List of Abbreviations	xxiii
1 The Early Years (1911–1922)	1
A magnate, purportedly a philanthropist, launches himself upon the Congo
First beginnings at Lusanga
The duplicity, and the claims of the HCB
A note on the relocation of the Luba of the Kasai
2 The Lejeune Report (1923)	23
The moving of villages
The Lejeune report
Reactions to the Lejeune report
3 The Establishment of a Monopoly in the Circles (1924–1926)	47
Monopoly achieved through the swindle of tripartite contracts
The Portuguese of Bumba protest
Hyacinthe Vanderyst and the ownership of the palm groves
Lode Achten and the tripartite contracts
4 In Barumbu Circle (1917–1930)	63
Forced labour in wretched conditions (1917–1924)
The Mill Hill Fathers against the State and the HCB (1925–1926)
Alexis Bertrand in Barumbu circle (1930)
5 In the Basongo and Lusanga Circles (1923–1930)	85
Echoes of Basongo circle (1923–1927)
In Lusanga circle (1927–1930)

6	The Portuguese of Bumba Against the HCB, Act Two (1928–1930)	100
	Petitions and reactions
	The Budja of Bumba-East robbed of their palm groves
7	The Compagnie du Kasai Proves to be Worse Than the HCB (1927–1930)	116
	Doctor Mouchet's reports
	The Daco report on the Compagnie du Kasai
	The experiences of Doctor Raingeard
	The response to the doctors' reports
8	Pierre Ryckmans' Report on Lusanga (1931)	133
	Ryckmans encounters recruits headed for the Offitra and Brabanta
	Ryckmans' report on Lusanga
9	The Revolt of the Pende (1931)	148
	The revolt
	The defining features of the repression
	Eugène Jungers on the spot
	Balance sheet and aftermath
10	The Lusanga HCB Transformed Into a "Model Employer" (1931–1932)	170
	The moving of villages—the third phase
	Labour contracts and supply contracts
11	Coercion and Consolidated Monopolies (1933–1935)	182
	Reign of terror in the Kamtsha-Lubue
	The sidelining of the Daco report—the protection of the oil mills
	A major new HCB project
	The prolongation of the tripartite contracts
12	The Years Between 1935 and 1939	199
	The planting of palm trees "in collaboration"
	Georges Morteihan's report
	A further modification in the 1911 Convention
13	The Apogee of Forced Labour During the War (1940–1945)	211
	Afterword	217
	Sources	225
	Notes	227
	Index	239