

Contents

List of Tables	page x
Preface to the First Edition	xii
Preface to the Fourth Edition	xiii
Acknowledgements	xiv

PART ONE: INTRODUCTION

1. The Social Context of British Politics 3
Geography and Insularity. The Economy. Mass Media. Nationalism, Regionalism and Religion. Homogeneity and Social Class—Family Background and Education—Occupation and Wealth. Consensus and Cleavage.

PART TWO: PARTIES, PRESSURE GROUPS AND THE ELECTORATE

2. Case Study of the British Electoral System: The May 1979 General Election. 33
The Dissolution. The Voters. The Constituencies. The Candidates. The Campaign. The Results. Proportional Representation.
3. The Social Structure of the Parties 70
The Electors. Floating Voters and Non-Voters. Party Members and Activists. Parliamentary Candidates and MPs. Ministers. Party and Society.
4. The Political Parties 102
The Two-Party System. Mass Parties. The Parties in Parliament—Conservative Party—Labour Party. The Parties Outside Parliament—Conservative Party—Labour Party—Liberal Party. Conclusion.

5. Pressure Groups 136
Pressure Group Politics. Classification of Pressure Groups. Pressure Group Activity. Pressure Groups in Action. Pressure Group Politics: an Assessment.

PART THREE: GOVERNMENT AND PARLIAMENT

6. The Constitution 163
The Unwritten Constitution. Unitary Government. The Evolution of Parliament and the Cabinet. Government and Parliament Today. Ministerial Responsibility. Constitutional Authority and Political Power.
7. The Structure of Government 194
Government Structure. Ministerial Recruitment. Cabinet Structure. Government Co-ordination. Cabinet Supports and Services. The Prime Minister and the Cabinet.
8. Parliament: I. The House of Commons 230
Functions and Timetable of the Commons. Parliamentary Procedure. The Legislative Process. Questions and Debates. The Committee System. Parliamentary Reform. The MP and his Constituents.
9. Parliament: II. The Monarchy and the House of Lords 268
The Monarchy: Value of the Monarchy. Constitutional Role of the Monarch. The House of Lords: Composition of the House of Lords. Power of the House of Lords. Future of the Second Chamber.

PART FOUR: THE WORKINGS OF GOVERNMENT

10. The Treasury and National Finance 295
The Principles of National Finance. The Role of the Treasury. Treasury and Parliamentary Control of Finance: I. The Estimates—II. The Accounts—III. National Revenue. The Co-ordination of Economic Policy.

11. The Central Administration 322
Development of the Civil Service. Modern Structure of the Civil Service. The Continuing Problems of Reform. Management of the Service. The Balance of Influence. The Problem of Delegated Legislation. The Control of Delegated Powers. The Problem of Administrative Adjudication. The Parliamentary Commissioner.
12. The Public Corporations 359
State Participation in Industry. The Public Enterprise Debate. Forms of Public Enterprise. Problems of the Public Corporations: I. Administrative Structure—II. Ministerial Control—III. Parliamentary Supervision IV. Financial Structure. Public Ownership in Britain: an Assessment.
13. Local Government 388
Local and Central Government. The History and Structure of Local Government. The Personnel of Local Government—The Council—The Officials. Local Government in Operation. Local Government Income—Loans—Rates—Grants. Party Politics and Public Attitudes. Regionalism and Devolution.

PART FIVE: CONCLUSION

14. The Nature of the British Political System 425
Democracy in Britain. Government of the People: An Alternative Government. Governments and Public Opinion. The Art of the Possible.

Bibliography

- Section 1: General Books* 445
Section 2: Specialized Texts and Articles (arranged by chapters) 448
Section 3: Political Biographies, Autobiographies and Memoirs 527

- Index 535

List of Tables

I	Population Density	page 4
II	Population Growth	5
III	Distribution of Civil Employment	7
IV	Newspaper Circulations 1965-77	10
V	Nominal Religious Affiliation	14
VI	Census 1971: Socio-Economic Groups (Great Britain)	19
VII	Post-War Trends in Income Distribution	20
VIII	Aspects of National Pride	23
IX	Gallup Poll, 1974-9 Parliament	35
X	General Elections 1900-79	39
XI	Stages in the Extension of the Franchise 1832-1969	42
XII	Main Opinion Polls Published During the 1979 General Election Campaign: Size of Conservative Lead	56
XIII	May 1979 General Election Result	59
XIV	May 1979 General Election: Distribution of the Vote by Region	61
XV	Voting Intention, 1979 General Election: by Social Class	73
XVI	Voting Intention, 1979 General Election: by Sex and Age Group	78
XVII	Educational and Occupational Profile of Parliamentary Candidates, October 1974 Election	89
XVIII	The House of Commons, 1974-9 Parliament	90
XIX	Changing Social Structure of the Parties in Parliament in the Post-War Period	94
XX	Social Structure of the Callaghan and Thatcher Cabinets, May 1979	98
XXI	Legislative, Executive and Administrative Devolution within the United Kingdom	167
XXII	Governments and Prime Ministers this Century	179

XXIII	Structure of the Thatcher Government, May 1979	page 197
XXIV	Cabinet Appointments Made by New Prime Ministers, January 1957–May 1979	206
XXV	Sessional Timetable 1976–7	237
XXVI	Analysis of Legislation 1975–6 and 1976–7	244
XXVII	UK Revenue and Expenditure, 1965–6 and 1977–8	313
XXVIII	Some Civil Service Pay Scales, 1979	336
XXIX	Gallup Poll: Size of Government Party Lead over Main Opposition Party	433