

Contents

List of Illustrations	viii
Introduction: Samuel Richardson's 'Paintive Art'	1
1. Eighteenth-Century Portraiture: Form, Use, Meaning, Spectatorship	10
2. Richardson's First Portrait: The Hayman Conversation Piece	50
3. Richardson's First Novel: Images of Pamela from Carwitham to Highmore	58
4. 'Now for a Likeness to Illustrate the Surprising Scene': Portraiture and Representation in Clarissa	112
5. 'I am a Painter, Madam': Portraiture and Representation in Sir Charles Grandison	175
Conclusion: Richardson's Legacy—Portraiture and Representation in Mansfield Park	232
Bibliography	248
Index	263