

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- 7 Acknowledgments from the Editor (Margriet Bruijn Lacy)
- 9 Foreword (Dan Thornton)
- 11 Wyger R. E. Velema
Rethinking the Batavian Revolution
- 25 Ton Broos
Early American Children Educated by a Dutch Bestseller:
Johannes Martinet and His Catechism of Nature
- 33 Paul R. Sellin (with Arie A. Dogterom)
Ben Jonson's "Servuce" in the Low Countries' Wars
- 47 Richard Guy
Where Were You on the Night of the Mutiny?
What the Revolt on the Nijenburg Can Tell Us about Space and Society aboard the Dutch East India Company's Ships
- 61 Michiel van Kempen
Circular Journeys: On Going Native in Postcolonial Studies
- 77 Jeroen Dewulf
Globalization and the Reinvention of Tradition:
Dutch Identity from a Hybrid Perspective
- 85 Augustinus P. Dierick
Dutch Identity and the "Other":
Problematic Assumptions, Shaky Strategies

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- 105 Manfred Wolf
Cultural Styles and the Integration of Moroccans into the Netherlands:
Parallels and Predictions
- 111 Kees Snoek
The Inner Space between Country of Origin and Country of Arrival:
The Nominees for the E. du Perron Prize 2007 and the Theme of Religion
- 121 Olf Praamstra
A Postcolonial Literature of the Dutch East Indies
- 131 Luc Renders
Dutch Literature on the Congo Free State (1885–1908)
- 145 Geert van Istendael
In Belgium the Word “Language” Has No Singular
- 155 Hugo Bousset
The Periodic Table of Europe: On Koen Peeters and Primo Levi
- 165 Robert S. Kirsner
On Translation, Linguistics, and Dutch Studies in America
- 179 Donald Haks
Two Seventeenth-Century Artists on the “Miseries of War”:
Romeyn de Hooghe (1645–1708) and Jacques Callot (1592–1635)
- 199 Anne Chalard-Fillaudeau
Rembrandt as a Cultural Figure
- 209 Christine P. Sellin
Chin-Chucks and Transparent Veils:
Notes on the Biblical Judah and Tamar (Genesis 38)
in Early Modern Netherlandish Art and Literature
- 221 Ingrid Cartwright
Seventeenth-Century Dutch and Flemish Artists, Drinking, and Identity
- 239 List of Contributors