

CONTENTS

Series Editor's Introduction	vii
1. Introduction Uichol Kim and John W. Berry	1
2. Indigenization of Psychology in India and Its Relevance Durganand Sinha	30
3. Mexican Ethnopsychology Rogelio Diaz-Guerrero	44
4. Ecological-Social Model of Greek Psychology James Georgas	56
5. Between West and East: Humanistic Values and Concerns in Polish Psychology Pawel Boski	79
6. Psychological Thought Within the System of Russian Culture B. F. Lomov, E. A. Budilova, V. A. Koltsova, and A. M. Medvedev	104
7. Traditional and Modern Psychologies in Competing Cultural Systems: Lessons From Iran 1978-1981 Fathali M. Moghaddam	118
8. Diversification of American Indians: Forming an Indigenous Perspective Joseph E. Trimble and Beatrice Medicine	133
9. Developing a Filipino Psychology Virgilio G. Enriquez	152
10. Latin American Psychology and World Psychology: Is Integration Possible? Ruben Ardila	170
11. Indigenous Psychologies and Social Representations of the Body and Self Denise Jodelet	177

12.	Indigenous Analysis of Collective Representations: A Korean Perspective Sang-Chin Choi, Uichol Kim, and Soo-Hyang Choi	193
13.	Indigenous Psychology in Africa: The Search for Meaning Michael O. A. Durojaiye	211
14.	Buddhist Psychology: A Therapeutic Perspective Padmal de Silva	221
15.	Relational Orientation in Asian Social Psychology David Yau-Fai Ho	240
16.	Psychology in and of Canada: One Small Step Toward a Universal Psychology John W. Berry	260
17.	The Way Ahead: From Indigenous Psychologies to a Universal Psychology John W. Berry and Uichol Kim	277
	Author Index	281
	Subject Index	289
	About the Authors	293