

Contents

Preface	page ix
Introduction: experience other than our own	1
1 The shape of the seventeenth century	20
PART I ENGLAND'S TROUBLES 1618–89: POLITICAL INSTABILITY	41
2 Taking contemporary belief seriously	43
3 The unreformed polity	66
4 Reformation politics (1): 1618–41	89
5 Counter-reformation England	113
6 Reformation politics (2): 1637–60	135
7 Restoration memory	161
8 Restoration crisis 1678–83	182
9 Invasion 1688–9	205
PART II THE ENGLISH REVOLUTION 1640–89: RADICAL IMAGINATION	227
10 The shape of the English revolution	229
11 Radical reformation (1): the power of love	247

12	Radical reformation (2): outward bondage	269
13	Radical renaissance (1): after monarchy	290
14	Radical renaissance (2): republican moral philosophy and the politics of settlement	317
15	Radical restoration (1): 'the subjected Plaine'	342
16	Radical restoration (2): the old cause	365
PART III	RESTORATION 1660–1702: RECONSTRUCTION AND STATEBUILDING	389
17	Restoration process	391
18	First restoration 1660–78	412
19	'Second Restauration' 1679–85	434
20	Third restoration 1688–94	454
21	Anglo-Dutch statebuilding	474
	Sources cited	497
	Index	529