

CONTENTS

List of figures and maps	vii
Preface to the second edition	viii
Abbreviations	xi
1. The French Civil Wars	1
Sectarian memories	1
Huguenots in Revolt	17
Reform of the Realm and its Failure	22
The Disputed Succession	37
2. The Catholic League	42
The Sixteen and the Day of Barricades in Paris (12 May 1588)	43
A 'Holy Union'	54
From Union to Party	62
The Sixteen and the Execution of Justice	66
Elective Kingship	70
3. The Pursuit of the Kingdom	73
'Always on Horseback'	73
The King's Conversion	75
'King of Reason'?	82
4. Huguenots under the Law	89
The Letters Patent of Mantes, July 1591	97
Henri IV's Conversion and the Huguenots	98
Henri IV and the Edict of Nantes	100
Huguenots under the Law	106

5. Financial Recovery	117
The Secret of Finance	117
Royal Debts and their Consequences (1589–96)	122
Sully's Rise to Power	131
The Liquidation of the Past	136
Financial Reform	144
Sully and the Constitution	149
6. Economic Reconstruction	156
The Terrible Years	156
Peasant Insurrection and the End of the Wars of the League	168
Revival and Reconstruction	172
7. The Long Robe	182
The Professions	182
The Sale of Offices	185
Prelates and Preachers	194
The Alienation of Ecclesiastical Wealth	196
The Divided Loyalties of the League	199
The Paulette	203
Perceptions of Reform in the Catholic Church	208
The New Order	213
8. The Old Nobility	218
The Titled Nobility and its Clients	218
Henri IV and the Titled Nobility	226
The Lesser Nobility	232
9. Pax Gallicana	236
The Defence of the Frontiers	237
Pax Gallicana	241
The Grand Design	248
Conclusion	251
The Assassination	251
The Legend	254
Myth and Reality	256
Bibliography	260
Appendix: The Paris Sixteen: a social analysis	284
Figures and Maps	287
Index	297

LIST OF FIGURES AND MAPS

FIGURES

Fig. 1. Extant imprints from the presses at Paris, Lyon and Toulouse	288
Fig. 2. The Bourbon succession	289
Fig. 3. Protestant church numbers and political assemblies in late sixteenth- and early seventeenth-century France	290
Fig. 4. Royal income, 1600–1617	291
Fig. 5. The fortune of Maximilien de Béthune, duke of Sully	292
Fig. 6. Office prices in the parlements of Paris and Rouen, 1590–1620	293

MAPS

Map 1. France during the Catholic League	294
Map 2. Protestant France, c. 1600	295
Map 3. France's frontiers, 1589–1610	296