

Contents

Conference Participants	vii
Introduction Lloyd H. Strickland, Carleton University	1
Part I History, Social Structure, and the Development of Social Psychology	23
Jill G. Morawski — Carleton University The Structure of Social Psychological Communities: A Framework for Examining the Sociology of Social Psychology	25
Discussion	55
Galina M. Andreeva — Moscow State University The Development of Social Psychology in the USSR	57
Part II Theory, Methodology, and the Subject Matter of Social Psychology	69
II A — Theory Development
John W. Berry — Queen's University Comparative Social Psychology: Societal Roots and Universal Goals	71
Discussion	90
Wolfgang Stroebe — University of Marburg The Level of Social Psychological Analysis: A Plea for a More Social Social Psychology	93
Discussion	108
Lyudmilla P. Bueva — Academy of Sciences of the USSR The Unity of Activity and Social Relations in the Construction of General Theory in Social Psychology	111
Discussion	116
II B — Theory and Content Area
John C. Barefoot — Carleton University The Role of Nonhuman Behaviour in North American Social Psychology	119
Discussion	138
Alexei A. Bodalev — Academy of Pedagogical Sciences of the USSR On the Study of Some Cognitive Processes in Soviet Social Psychology	143
Discussion	147
John G. Holmes and Peter Grant — University of Waterloo Ethnocentric Reactions to Social Threat	151
Discussion	164

Ekaterina V. Shorokhova — Academy of Sciences of the USSR The Socio-psychological Approach to Personality	167
Discussion	176
II C — Theory, Methodology and Ethics
Paul G. Swingle — University of Ottawa Damned if We Do — Damned if We Don't	181
Discussion	199
Dmitri P. Gribanov — Academy of Sciences of the USSR Methodological Problems in Social Psychological Research	201
Discussion	205
Part III Theory and Research: Reciprocal Implications	209
III A — The USSR
Boris F. Lomov — Academy of Sciences of the USSR Mental Processes and Communication	211
Discussion	223
Valeriy N. Nosulenko — Academy of Sciences of the USSR The Estimation of Sound Intensity when Subjects Communicate	227
Discussion	232
III B — Canada
Frances E. Aboud — McGill University Self: An Identity, a Concept, or a Sense ?	235
Discussion	253
Donald G. Dutton — University of British Columbia Social Psychology and Community Psychology: The Case of the Police	255
Discussion	270
Norman S. Segalowitz and Micheline Favreau — Concordia University The Social Psychology of Second Language Communication	273
Discussion	286
Warren Thorngate — University of Alberta Memory, Cognition and Social Performance	289
Part IV Assessment	317
Lloyd H. Strickland — Carleton University Soviet and Western Social Psychology: Reflections	319
Name Index	325
Subject Index	333