

---

Contents

---

|  |       |
|--|-------|
| Series Foreword, by Curtis P. Haugtvedt..... | xiii  |
| Foreword, by Kevin Lane Keller.....          | xv    |
| Preface.....                                 | xxi   |
| The Editors.....                             | xxv   |
| Contributors.....                            | xxvii |

Section I Overview

|  |          |
|--|----------|
| 1 On the Science of Branding: An Introduction.....      | 3 |
| Barbara Loken, Rohini Ahluwalia, and Michael J. Houston |          |
| Content of the Book.....                                       | 3        |
| Social Media and a Look to the Future.....                     | 7        |
| References.....  | 8        |

Section II Managing and Leveraging Brands

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| 2 Leveraging a Brand Through Brand Extension:A Review of Two Decades of Research..... | 11 |
| Barbara Loken, Christopher Joiner, and Michael J. Houston                                  |           |
| What Is a Brand Extension?.....   | 11        |
| Brand Extensions That Extend Familiar Brand Associations.....                                     | 14        |
| Parent Brand Commitment, Trust, Liking, and Experience.....                                       | 15        |
| Brand Extension Consistency.....  | 16        |
| Information Prominence and Accessibility.....   | 17        |
| Strategic Brand Decision Making.....  | 18        |
| Product Branding Strategies.....  | 19        |
| Pricing Brand Strategies.....   | 21        |
| Distribution Branding Strategies.....   | 24        |
| Promotional Brand Strategies.....   | 25        |
| Competitive Strategies.....   | 26        |
| Brand Extensions That Are Innovative.....   | 27        |
| Brand Revitalization.....   | 28        |
| Consumers Who Prefer Novelty and Risk.....  | 28        |
| Increasing Brand Breadth.....   | 29        |
| Establishing a First-Mover Advantage.....   | 29        |

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Sub-Brand Strategies .....   | 30        |
| Cultural Factors in Brand Extension Evaluation.....                        | 31        |
| Conclusions and Future Research .....                                      | 34        |
| References .....   | 37        |
| 3 Brand Alliances.....  | 43 |
| Akshay Rao  |           |
| Introduction .....   | 43        |
| Organizing Framework.....  | 44        |
| Theoretical Perspectives and Evidence.....                                 | 46        |
| Information Economics .....  | 47        |
| Behavioral Research.....   | 51        |
| Implications and Applications.....   | 56        |
| Issues Related to the Formation and Management ofBrand Alliances ..... | 56        |
| Issues Related to Consumer Perceptions of Brand Alliances.....             | 58        |
| Issues Related to the Strategic Consequences of BrandAlliances .....   | 59        |
| Conclusion .....   | 60        |
| References .....   | 60        |
| 4 Traveling the Paths to Brand Loyalty .....                        | 63 |
| Rohini Ahluwalia and Andrew M. Kaikati                              |           |
| Brand Loyalty .....  | 64        |
| The Three Paths to Brand Loyalty .....                                     | 66        |
| The Performance Path .....   | 67        |
| The Path of Consumer-Brand Connection .....                                | 70        |
| The Path Paved With Incentives .....                                       | 76        |
| Conclusion .....   | 83        |
| References .....   | 85        |
| 5 Branding and Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) .....          | 91 |
| Zeynep Gürhan-Canli and Anne Fries                                  |           |
| Consumer Characteristics.....  | 94        |
| Awareness .....  | 94        |
| Familiarity .....  | 94        |
| Affinity for the Cause .....   | 94        |
| Personal Characteristics .....   | 95        |
| Company Characteristics and Actions.....                                   | 96        |
| Prior Reputation of the Company .....                                      | 96        |
| Design Elements of CSR Activities .....                                    | 97        |
| Communication of CSR Activities .....                                      | 100       |

Company–CSR Fit..... 101
 Accessibility of Other Corporate and Brand Associations ..... 104
 Conclusion ..... 105
 References ..... 106

Section III Cultural, Sociological, and Global Branding Perspectives

6 Cultural Symbolism of Brands ..... 113
Carlos J. Torelli, Hean Tat Keh, and Chi-Yue Chiu
 Brand Building in Multicultural Markets..... 113
     Brand Symbolism and Consumer Identity..... 114
     Cultural Symbolism of Brands and Iconic Brands ..... 115
     Measuring the Cultural Symbolism of Brands ..... 116
     Iconic Brands as Cultural Primes in Globalized Markets ..... 120
     Iconic Brands and Self-Identity ..... 123
     How Do Brands Become Cultural Symbols? ..... 126
 Conclusions..... 127
 References ..... 129

7 Toward a Sociological Model of Brands ..... 133
Thomas C. O’Guinn and Albert M. Muniz, Jr.
 Beyond Attitudes ..... 134
 Community as Example..... 135
 The Social Model..... 137
     Suggestions on Method ..... 150
 Conclusion ..... 150
 References ..... 152

Section IV New Directions in Measurement of Brand Equity

8 Measuring Brand Equity: The Marketing Surplus and Efficiency (MARKSURE)-Based Brand Equity..... 159
C. Whan Park, Deborah J. MacInnis, Xavier Drèze, and Jonathan Lee
 Introduction ..... 159
 Perspectives on Brand Equity ..... 160
     Costs to the Firm to Secure Customer Relationships
         (Firm Effort) ..... 165
 The “Referent Brand” ..... 166

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| Temporal Issues Involving Brand Equity .....  | 167        |
| Marketing Surplus and Efficiency (MARKSURE)-Based BrandEquity .....   | 168        |
| Revised Definition of Brand Equity .....  | 169        |
| Unit Price.....   | 169        |
| Quantity Sold.....  | 169        |
| Marketing Costs .....   | 170        |
| Two Key Components of the MARKSURE Metric.....  | 170        |
| Brand Equity Measure.....   | 172        |
| Operational Characteristics of the Marketing Surplus andMarketing Efficiency-Based Brand Equity Measure ..... | 173        |
| Operational Definition of Marketing Costs.....  | 173        |
| Using MARKSURE to Assess Marketing Activities.....  | 176        |
| Including Lag Effects .....   | 176        |
| Practitioner Appeal.....  | 177        |
| Discussion .....  | 179        |
| The Boundary of Marketing Functions.....  | 179        |
| Potential Inflation of Measured Brand Equity.....   | 180        |
| Incorporating Expected Future Earning .....   | 180        |
| Brand Equity of Not-For-Profit Brands.....  | 181        |
| The Unit of Analysis for Brand Equity.....  | 181        |
| Appendix .....  | 183        |
| References .....  | 186        |
|   |            |
| 9 Revisiting the Customer Value Proposition:   |            |
| The Power of Brand Emotion .....   | 189 |
| Baba Shiv and Antoine Bechara  |            |
| Customer Value Proposition—Tracing the Historical Viewpoints..  | 189        |
| The “Third-Wave” View—The Power of Brand Emotion.....   | 191        |
| The Story of Phineas Gage.....  | 192        |
| More Evidence From Neurological Patients .....  | 193        |
| Decision Quality, Emotions, and the Brain.....  | 194        |
| Back to the Customer Value Proposition.....   | 200        |
| Journey Into the Future.....  | 200        |
| Developing Appropriate Measures for the E Component.....  | 201        |
| Exploring Tactical Approaches to Shaping E in the Age ofthe Internet.....                                     | 203        |
| Adding Beta-Weights to the Components of the CVP.....   | 204        |
| Some Final Words .....  | 204        |
| References .....  | 205        |
|   |            |
| 10 Utility-Based Models of Brand Equity.....   | 207 |
| Tülin Erdem and Joffre Swait   |            |

- Introduction ..... 207
- A Utility-Based Modeling Framework for Customer-Based Brand Equity ..... 210
- Consumer Choice Processes and Brand Equity Measurement ..... 214
  - Cross-Sectional Models ..... 214
  - Panel Data Models ..... 220
- Linking Customer-Based Brand Equity to Market Performance ..... 223
- Future Research ..... 224
- References ..... 227

Section V Protecting Brands

- 11 When Do Bad Things Happen to Good Brands? Understanding Internal and External Sources of Brand Dilution ..... 233
  - Barbara Loken and Deborah Roedder John*
  - External Sources of Dilution ..... 236
    - Negative Media Publicity ..... 236
    - Unauthorized Use of Trademarks ..... 241
    - Distribution Channel Activities ..... 244
    - Consumer Backlash ..... 245
  - Internal Sources of Dilution ..... 249
    - Inconsistent Marketing Mix Decisions ..... 249
    - Brand Leveraging Problems ..... 253
  - Protecting Brands from Dilution ..... 257
    - Brand Monitoring and Surveillance ..... 258
    - Building and Maintaining Strong Brands ..... 258
    - Distancing Techniques ..... 260
  - Future Research ..... 261
  - References ..... 263
- 12 Brands and Trademarks: The Legal Implications of Branding .... 271
  - Stephen R. Baird*
  - The Relationship Between Brands and Trademarks ..... 271
    - Trademarks Must Be Distinctive ..... 272
    - Trademarks Cannot Be Functional ..... 276
  - How Trademark Rights Are Obtained and What They Provide the Brand Owner ..... 277
    - Trademark Rights Are Created in the United States Through Use ..... 277
    - Registration Provides Enhanced Rights ..... 277

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Trademark Rights Are Designed to Prevent Confusion ofConsumers ..... | 280        |
| Remedies to Trademark Owner When Rights Are Infringed ...                | 280        |
| Loss of Trademark Rights .....   | 281        |
| The Importance of Enforcing Trademark Rights .....                       | 281        |
| Abandonment .....  | 282        |
| Genericide .....   | 282        |
| Transfer and Licensing of Trademark Rights .....                         | 283        |
| Famous Trademarks and Dilution .....                                     | 286        |
| The Use of Survey Evidence in Trademark Disputes .....                   | 288        |
| Conclusion .....   | 290        |
| Endnotes .....   | 291        |
| Author Index .....  | 293 |
| Subject Index .....   | 305 |
| Brand Index .....   | 309 |