

Contents

General Editor's Preface	vi
Preface	ix
1 Economic and Political Setting	1
2 1931: The Political Watershed	9
3 The Unemployed and the Means Test	20
4 Industrial Graveyards	44
5 The Growing Communities	68
6 Inside the Workshops	74
7 Industrial Workers: Backs to the Wall	83
8 Industrial Workers: Recovery and the Fight for Trade Union Organization	104
9 Wages - Real and Unreal	133
10 Class Structure and Class Outlook	148
11 Babies and the Birthrate	162
12 Educational Pyramid	167
13 Homes, Landlords and Building Societies	180
14 Eating and Not Eating	202
15 The Sick and the Old	221
16 New Patterns of Living	234
17 Leisure and the Rise of the Mass Media	246
18 The Radical Trend in Culture	257
19 Fascists and anti-fascists	281
20 Attitudes to the Outside World	297
21 Conclusion	323
Short Guide to Further Reading	326
References and Notes	329
Appendix of tables	339
Index	350