

Contents of Volume 2

Contributors	viii
Preface	ix

I

Making social psychology public

Introduction	1
1. In search of an emancipatory social psychology	9
P. J. van Strien
2. Democratization of the social research process	27
C. Mamali
3. Towards a participatory psychology	45
P. Stringer
4. Socio-psychological and literary accounts of femininity	65
M. Wetherell

II

Empirical research: education, management consultancy, industry

Introduction	91
5. Approaches in the social psychology of learning and group work	97
A.-N. Perret-Clermont
6. Management consultancy examined	123
L. van de Bunt
7. Leadership and negotiation: social psychology and its application in an organizational context	141
I. E. Morley

III
Studies in Northern Ireland

Introduction	161
8. Working for them versus working for us: a theoretical case-study in intergroup relations between science and society	167
J. Lockwood
9. Conflict in Northern Ireland: a research perspective	195
K. Trew and L. McWhirter
10. Conducting research in Northern Ireland: a personal view	215
J. Lockwood
Author Index	229
Subject Index	235