

Contents

ABBREVIATIONS	13
PREFACE	17
INTRODUCTION	19

PART I—UP TO 1974

1	IN PLACE OF STRIFE	27
	Moderates and militants
	Reaction to post-war prosperity
	The Donovan Commission
	Harold Wilson and the Communists
	Public disenchantment
	Barbara Castle and In Place of Strife
	Labour's election strategy, 1969-70
2	THE INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS ACT	42
	Edward Heath faces the unions
	The Industrial Relations Bill
	The unions refuse to register
	A compulsory ballot
	The dockers challenge the courts
	Individual attempts to use the Act
	Industrial relations and the law
3	ARTHUR SCARGILL AND THE FLYING PICKETS	55
	Background to the 1972 miners' strike
	The strike begins
	Arthur Scargill
	The flying pickets
	Violence

- 4 THE BATTLE OF SALTLEY 64
The mountain of coke
The Yorkshire miners answer the call
The violence begins
Mobilizing reinforcement by other unions
Closing the gates
The effects of Saltley
The reaction to violence
- 5 THE SHREWSBURY PICKETS 75
The 1972 building strike
Background to the strike
Employers and trade unions
Sequence of events
Shrewsbury: the background
Shrewsbury: 6 September 1972
Shrewsbury: the trial
The effects of Shrewsbury
- 6 DAYS OF HOPE 90
The steam goes out of the strikes
Stage 1: a freeze on pay and prices
Stage 2: the Counter-Inflation Act
Vic Feather leaves the TUC
Stage 3: a child to be strangled at birth
- 7 OIL AND THE ARAB-ISRAELI WAR 98
The rising price of oil
The fortunes of war
Oil as a diplomatic weapon
Arab oil and the British economy
- 8 THE STRIKE THAT BROUGHT DOWN A GOVERNMENT 103
The Coal Board's offer
A State of Emergency
The Downing Street meeting
Whitelaw becomes Employment Secretary
The three-day week
The miners' strike
Picketing in 1974

Contents

- 9 THE SHATTERING OF A DREAM 113
Heath's reluctance to call an election
The election of February 1974
Why Heath failed

PART II—1974-77

- 10 HAROLD WILSON'S MINORITY GOVERNMENT, 1974 121
Back to work
No peace for industry
Inflation and a collapse of investment
The Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service
(ACAS)
The Trade Union and Labour Relations Act, 1974
The backlash
- 11 THE ULSTER WORKERS' COUNCIL STRIKE, 1974 130
The Protestants in Ulster
Direct Rule
Power-sharing and the Protestant reaction
Preparing for the strike
The strike begins
The UWC's alternative administration
The collapse of the Government
Paisley's strike in 1977
- 12 BOMBS IN ENGLAND 146
England's most violent year
Anatomy of a bombing campaign
Public reaction and the law
- 13 RED LION SQUARE AND WINDSOR PARK 152
Political demonstrations in London
Planning the marches to Red Lion Square
Sequence of events, 15 June 1974
Public comment and public inquiry
The effects of the demonstration
Police tactics
Demonstrations and the law
The Windsor Park Free Festival 1974

- 14 THE SOCIAL CONTRACT 168
 The General Election of October 1974
 Inflation and lack of confidence
 The origins of the Social Contract
 Stage 1
 The Employment Protection Act, 1975
- 15 THE END OF AN INCOMES POLICY 177
 James Callaghan takes over
 The collapse of the Pound
 Minority Government and the Lib-Lab pact
 Wealth
 Incomes
 Differentials
 The end of the Social Contract
- 16 GRUNWICK 191
 The teacup and the storm
 How the dispute developed
 The National Association for Freedom intervenes
 The failure of moderation
 Mass picketing
 The violence subsides
 The postmen and the courts
 Conclusions
- 17 THE GROWTH OF VIOLENCE ON THE STREETS 211
 The Right to Work March
 Lewisham, 13 August 1977
 The Ladywood by-election
 The politics of hate
- PART III—DISRUPTION, REACTION AND REFORM
- 18 THE FORCES OF INTERNAL CONFLICT 225
 Revolution or reform?
 Sources of disruption in British society
 The Communist Party of Great Britain (CPGB)
 The Labour Party Marxists

Contents

	The Socialist Workers' Party (SWP)
	IMG, WRP, CPBML, WSL, CPEML and Others
	The National Front (NF) and the National Party (NP)
	The National Association for Freedom (NAFF)
	Others on the Right
	The price to pay for disruption
19	THE RULE OF LAW	244
	Political violence and the law
	Terrorism
	Political demonstrations
	Violent picketing
	Public interest and personal options
20	THE POLITICAL PROCESS IN BRITAIN	255
	What people want
	The Labour Party
	The Conservative Party
	Winner take all
	Proportional representation
21	POWER TO THE PEOPLE	265
	Public opinion
	The media
	Industrial democracy
	Political violence and the police
	Revival or relapse?
	POSTSCRIPT	281
	CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE	283
	NOTES	291
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	317
	INDEX	321