PART ONE. OVERVIEW

1 Applying Social Psychology—Yes or No? 1

IS SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY REALLY APPLICABLE? 3

The Nature of Social Psychology. The Applied versus Theoretical Conflict.

Has Social Psychology Been Applied? Should Social Psychology Be Experimental?

Can Social Science Influence Public Policy?

SOME RESPONSES CONCERNING APPLICABILITY, 9

Sources of Information on Applied Social Psychology.

A DEFINITION OF APPLIED SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY, 11

Divisions of the Field.

SUMMARY, 15

SUGGESTED READINGS, 15

2 Typical Features, Roles, and Problems of the Field, 16

A Problem Orientation. A Value Orientation. Social Utility.

A Broad Approach. Field Settings. Practical Considerations.

Basic versus Applied Science.

USES OF THEORY IN APPLIED WORK, 23

ROLES AND ACTIVITIES, 26

Research. Evaluation. Consultation and Change Agency.

Policy Advice. Management of Organizations. Social Activism.

PROBLEMS FOR APPLIED SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY, 30
 What Is the Evidence? Is the Evidence Generalizable?
 Unintended Consequences. Ethical Issues.

SUMMARY, 36

SUGGESTED READINGS, 37

PART TWO. METHODS OF OBTAINING KNOWLEDGE

3 Survey Research—The Quality of Life, 38

AN EXAMPLE OF SURVEY METHODOLOGY, 40
 Background and Theory. The Measuring Instrument. The Sample of Respondents.
 Interviewing, Coding, and Data Analysis.

KEY CHARACTERISTICS OF SURVEY RESEARCH, 45
 Instrument Construction. Sample Selection. Data Collection.

RESULTS OF THE QUALITY-OF-LIFE SURVEY, 50
 Overall Satisfaction and Other Global Indices.
 Domain Satisfaction Measures. Limitations of the Study.

FOLLOW-UP STUDIES OF THE QUALITY OF LIFE, 53
 Global Indices of Well-Being. Domain Satisfaction Measures.
 Studies by Other Research Groups.

SUMMARY, 57

SUGGESTED READINGS, 58

4 Experiments—Soliciting Donations, 59

AN ILLUSTRATIVE SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY EXPERIMENT, 61
 Theory. Procedure. Results. Remaining Questions.

KEY CONSIDERATIONS IN EXPERIMENTS, 64
 Planning. Laboratory versus Field Experiments. Instructions.
 Subjects. Control of Conditions. Experimental Procedures.
 Experimental Artifacts. Results Obtained.
 Internal Validity and External Validity. Long-Term Effects.
 Ethical Issues.

THE NEED FOR AN EXPERIMENTING SOCIETY, 75

SUMMARY, 76

SUGGESTED READINGS, 76

5 Correlational Research—Leadership, 78

CHARACTERISTICS OF CORRELATIONAL RESEARCH, 79

ILLUSTRATIVE CORRELATIONAL STUDIES, 81
 Theoretical Background. Measuring Instruments. Procedure.
 Results and Follow-Up Studies. Analysis and Critique of the Research.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE CONTINGENCY THEORY OF LEADERSHIP, 87

VALIDATIONAL RESEARCH ON THE CONTINGENCY THEORY, 90
 Criticisms of the Contingency Theory.

EXTENSIONS AND APPLICATIONS OF THE THEORY, 93
 The Dynamics of Leadership. Applications of the Theory to Leadership Training.

SUMMARY, 97

SUGGESTED READINGS, 97

6 Quasi-Experimental Studies—Effects of Television, 98

- A NONEQUIVALENT CONTROL GROUP STUDY: SESAME STREET, 99
 - Methodology. Results.
- THREATS TO VALID INFERENCE, 103
 - Threats to Statistical Conclusion Validity. Threats to Internal Validity.
 - Threats to Construct Validity of Causes and Effects. Threats to External Validity.
 - Relationships among the Four Types of Validity.
- ANALYSIS OF THE SESAME STREET STUDY, 113
 - Statistical Conclusion Validity. Internal Validity.
 - Construct Validity. External Validity.
- A TIME-SERIES STUDY: TV AND READING, 116
 - Analysis of the TV and Reading Study. Statistical Analysis of Time-Series Studies.
- USING RANDOMIZATION IN FIELD RESEARCH, 120
 - Randomization in Quasi-Experimental Studies.
- SUMMARY, 122
- SUGGESTED READINGS, 122

7 Evaluation Research—Sesame Street, 124

- CHARACTERISTICS OF EVALUATION RESEARCH, 126
 - Development of Evaluation Research. Aspects of Evaluation Research.
 - Alternative Views of Evaluation Research.
- AN ILLUSTRATIVE EVALUATION RESEARCH STUDY: SESAME STREET, 131
 - Formative Evaluation. Planning the Summative Evaluation.
 - Results of the Summative Evaluation.
- A META-ANALYSIS OF SESAME STREET, 136
 - A Critical Secondary Evaluation. A Pained Rejoinder.
 - A Third Evaluation Study.
- NEW TRENDS IN EVALUATION RESEARCH, 141
- USE OF EVALUATION RESEARCH, 142
- SUMMARY, 144
- SUGGESTED READINGS, 145

PART THREE. AREAS OF APPLICATION

8 Educational Settings—School Desegregation, 146

- A BRIEF HISTORY OF SCHOOL DESEGREGATION, 147
 - What Has Happened since Brown?
- AN ILLUSTRATIVE STUDY OF DESEGREGATION, 152
 - Design of the Study. Findings. Conclusions.
- AN OVERVIEW OF OTHER STUDIES ON DESEGREGATION, 159
 - Reviews of the Research Literature. Cook's Summary of the Evidence.
- A MORE EFFECTIVE DESEGREGATION PROCESS, 164
 - Cooperative Learning in the Jigsaw Classroom. Research on the Jigsaw Technique.
 - Other Cooperative-Learning and Equal-Status Approaches.
- OTHER EDUCATIONAL TOPICS, 171
- SUMMARY, 171
- SUGGESTED READINGS, 172

DOING ACTION RESEARCH, 336
 An Outstanding Example. Common Problems in Doing Action Research.

SERVING IN PUBLIC OFFICE, 341

INFLUENCING LEGISLATION AND PUBLIC POLICY, 341

ORGANIZING AND AGITATING, 342
 Alinsky's Conflict Tactics. Outcomes of Alinsky's Organizing.
 Research Evidence on Confrontation.

EFFECTS OF PRESSURE GROUPS, 348

CITIZEN PARTICIPATION IN GOVERNMENT DECISIONS, 349
 Recent History. Rationale and Definitions.
 Difficulties in Achieving Citizen Participation.

TRAINING ACTIVISTS, 353

SUMMARY, 354

SUGGESTED READINGS, 354

15 Influencing Public Policy, 356

THE POLICY SCIENCES, 357

RESEARCH FOR PUBLIC POLICY, 358

SUCCESSSES AND FAILURES OF POLICY RESEARCH, 360
 Successes. Failures.

THE NATURE OF POLICY DECISIONS, 363

WAYS OF USING POLICY-RELEVANT RESEARCH, 364
 Levels of Usefulness. Types of Use.

DOES PUBLIC OPINION AFFECT GOVERNMENT DECISIONS? 367
 A Recent Study.

EMPIRICAL STUDIES OF RESEARCH UTILIZATION, 370
 Caplan's Study of Federal Decision-Makers.
 Government Decision-Makers in Austria. Usefulness of Mental Health Research.
 Use of Evaluation Research. Use of Public Opinion Research.

IMPACT OF MAJOR POLICY RESEARCH STUDIES, 382
 Negative Income Tax Experiments. Experimental Housing Allowance Program.
 Studies of Other Policy Issues.

REASONS RESEARCH MAY BE UNDERUTILIZED, 384
 Problems in Research Formulation. Problems in Research Results.
 Problems in Interpreting Research Results.
 Problems in Applying Research to Policy Issues.

PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE, 386
 Roles for Psychologists. Ethical Issues.

SUMMARY, 389

SUGGESTED READINGS, 390

APPENDIX

Theories in Applied Social Psychology, 391

USEFUL PSYCHOLOGICAL TECHNIQUES AND CONCEPTS, 392
 Psychometric Measurement of Abilities. Interests and Motives.
 Social Psychological Concepts.

USEFUL SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGICAL THEORIES, 399

Learning Theory. Social Judgment Theory. Cognitive Dissonance Theory.
Reactance Theory. Attribution Theory. Equity Theory. Role Theory.
